Sorry was saving those again

That's ok....any luck with seattle police? Does seattle have any low income legal services place like ak legal services? Ak legal services doesn't do half the helpful stuff they did when you had them help with divorce/custody....they have lost a lot of funding....so I was wondering if seattle has any options like that or if they are too swamped with people in need and underfunded like here.

09/04/2017 8:41PM

Seattle does and i called and they referred me to alaska legal services since everything is happening in alaska 😞

Everything is like hitting a wall

The cop was a super douche and didnt even ask me questions. He didnt offer shit and basically said hes just writing up what we said

I got the somewhat clear message that he is discrediting everything i said.

I need someone to fucking listen and understand. He asked me if there was past violence and shit and i told him yes. "After" he was done i asked him what are keywords i can say, what do i need to say to get someone to listen to me and try to find my kid

He gave me nothing. It seems like people think im exaggerating, that im butthurt trying to cause drama, that kk is/was just complaining and there's nothing happening that could be wrong. I dont understand why no one will listen. I spoke with articulation. I spoke calmly and didnt stutter. I kept my facts straight, even if i didn't remember them all at once. I looked clean and presentable and healthy, i think. I had all my documents with me, which he declined to review. I don't know how else i can present this to someone in an effective manner.

What do i do

Good question.....I mean other than submitting the court docs and waiting it out.....which is crazy....I would think they would at least check things out ....you know any lawyers that would help?

Like old employers or Co workers?

Yeah. Its time to look into letting dude actually pay for an attorney. I am not confident in

I noticed the paperwork you sent shows jj was supposed to get medical and dental appointments, counseling for kk and enrollment in school....we need to find out or have ak cps find out if that has happened....as far as we know she isn't in school....last she was able to speak with eme she wasn't in counseling....so that's 2 items he isn't addressing as they listed in those documents

I received the documents late yesterday afternoon

like 530 my time 430 alaska time

I got the Fairbanks police report today, too. I fucking knew it. They did NOT find kk. They did NOT talk to her. No one of authority has seen or talked to her.

She fucking thinks she s alone. That is my biggest fear. Where the fuck is she??? What in the fuck is wrong with him? Every time I think I'm trippin and maybe I am the worst parent ever and maybe I am evil and an abuser and stuff I remember that he is not letting her talk to anyone or do anything and that he is fucking nuts and me not returning a phone call when some cunt wanted me to is no excuse for what he is doing or what is happening right now and that I havent been focused on me im focused on her

No, just the Washington cps papers and the papers they filed to obtain custody

No she is not used to yelling unless its happy or joke yells

I think it's beyond fucked...I mean if they couldn't reach you then why did they all jump to the conclusion you vanished willingly? I mean how did any of them know that maybe something bad happened to you....like no one even bothered to attempt to make sure you were ok or to see what could be done to help you and kk as opposed to taking her from the only parent she has ever known? What a fucked up system

September 9, 2017 10:18 am

Ok hold on and ill send you what i have so far

Sarah they were reaching me through kk

They were giving her messages to give me

That lady was ....idk. what motives were. But they obviously knew i was around and communicating wjth kk

September 10, 2017 9:38 am

Or where she is sick and he says no soup because soup is bad when youre sick???

And she indicates she has complained about being sick before but was discredited

Yeah....that was crazy....feed cheese to an upset stomach? That's like the worst thing for that....soup is good when your feeling pukey

Because if its anxiety or sadness its not a physical sick feeling and should be ignored

Right, that everyone ignores her, he actually tells her its fine that she feels like that...wtf? He doesn't have a clue how to deal with her at all

Yeah that was a fuckin weird thing for him to say about the soup. I can almost hear moths fluttering around in his skull when i read that

And she asks for a lock for the door and tells him to stop coming in the room

Parts of it where she keeps asking for food or whatever...I can almost see his frustration and annoyance...

Especially since no response from you and i told him to be polite and stop fucking with me

I'm worried about that too....the longer he gets away with this, the more he will just ignore her requests he doesn't want to deal with

September 10, 2017 9:49 am

I am so upset sarah and working all the tome. It took me 5 hours to obtain and save all my screen shots

At least now you know what to address and how better to state your side in the motions with more backup of her own words and things that are red flags with her situation

I believe it...tedious and time consuming

why does everything have to take so long. Im glad for the delays in that i have the paperwork to help make argument points against. But im so upset that im in this weird numb haze and its hard to hustle like i want to, or im so upset it feels like weird heart stabs and i dont know how to control the anger in my body i dont know how to deal with

I had spent the night with her 5 days prior. Talking lots every day, mainly about meeting up. It looks like everything in our lives got more and more nuts during May and those last 5 days we just kept missing each other. On the 15th i got a bad feeling without knowing it-i can tell from my message to her. It's different from the rest. But so may 8 was the 1st night we weren't together and that's because it was the first just shit hotel i've ever stayed at. She wanted to come out but i said no. It was bad there. I wouldn't even put a sheet on the floor to sit on it i think i stood in one place all night

I know

And it's all proven i just found out myself because of the evidence

I needed an assistant i can't believe i brain farted such major details like GET INTO HER FACEBOOK or CONFIRM THE DATES

fuckin

I am way more upset though

It makes everything make even LESS sense

Well yeah cause it sounds like cps was full of shit

And more fucked i didnt think it could get more fucked but it did and i am like-

I don't know if my brain wont explode. why. why did this happen. They must have barreled over kk. She had to have known we werent apart that long

I lost track of the days in the chaos but she was in school. Where do i even begin addressing this. Is anyone going to look at these documents. I was up all night just doing exhibits. That's how i found this i just found it

I have so many messages proving my side but if no one looks or reads....i am so distressed about why they were so eager to take her away i just dont understand....kk NEVER would have said we hadnt spoken in 2 weeks

I wasn't sneaking to her house that lady was fucking nut Done

Or just being nice to your faces and judging your situation behind your back?

My gut says i stayed there may 11. She flipped out on me for going there even though kk says - she offers, i didnt ask- and tells me 100% me and birds can stay no problem. So i needed a place bad on 5/11 and kk said ok and got a room ready and i said just for one night that's all

She gets in my face when i get there

Anyways next morning she still slurs bad and says i can use her car as long as i drive her a round at other times for her errands

So if she was two faced with what she would tell you and kk then it makes sense she was feeding who knows what to cps

I just get out as soon as i can. But she wanted to be friends. Heres the thing

All it takes is one wrong person getting into things to start this kind of crap....it sucks....I've had a fairly healthy fear of cps getting anywhere me or my life or my kids....this is now the 3rd time I've seen them fuck with someone I love in ways that did nothing but harm instead of good

Kk said this crazy bitch found out i asked kk to leave the food card in the mailbox. Kk had food card. I needed it. It was one of the crazy days that we kept physically missing meeting up. I pick up food card. My theory is because kk told her and the dad i avoided her, she is embarrassed and pissed and thats when she made up the sneaking into her house story

And even though i had JUST seen crazy lady and told her my ENTIRE story which was why she was nice to me -until kk tattled- she played dumb to cps like we hadnt talked and she had no clue who i was except a creepy midnight stalker or som shit

Sounds like a winner....not

Did i tell you he just got new teeth???

Done

Anyway kk and i are getting paid when this is done. Which will be soon. Like now. I thought i was done last week

September 25, 2017 3:50 pm

Yeah he posted on fb- i saw through kk acct- that he got "another " back surgery

And a month and a half later!- new teeth

I didn't know he had back surgery....I did hear about the new teeth

While kk is eating rice and drinking tap water

God

Egg quesedillas

My guess is neither the surgery or teeth cost him anything or he wouldn't have done them

I'm thinking if you can't afford the plane ticket to get your daughter at a few hundred then how will you feed said child monthly?

That really doesn't add up....let's send this kid to a criminal parent who can't afford her himself....great cps work there....NOT!
