Title Must Be In English And Not More Than 12 Words. Align Text Left With 14 Point Font Size, Times New Roman.

Author1, Author2, Author3
Affiliation of author[1], Affiliation of author[2], Affiliation of author[3]
Email: author[1]@email.com

Abstract (Bold, 10pt)
Abstract and keywords are written in English. The length of each abstract is no more than 150 words. Single spacing. Times New Roman 10pt. The abstract contains a narrative summary of the background, objectives, research methods or design, research results or plans, and conclusions in one paragraph.

Keywords: maximum 5 words (not include words in the article's title)
Article history: Received ; Revised ; Accepted

(single space)

INTRODUCTION (Times New Roman 11, bold, required chapter structure)

Introduction contains a narrative of the background underlying the problems raised in the research that will be explained in this article. Background also contains questions or objectives in narrative-descriptive form. The author is responsible for the suitability of the systematics and ethics of using other people's work. The background narrative does not contain plagiarism of other people's work.

Introduction can be supplemented with supporting data such as tables, diagrams, and photos. The total text in this article is 4,000 – 6,000 words. The titles of the sections should be in bold. Articles in the forms of research papers, theoretical papers, design reviews related to the journal scope.

(single space)

Section (Times New Roman 11, bold)

The paper should be organized into several sections. Do not number this section either. Use italics in case of words in different languages from English.

(single space)

Sub Sections (Times New Roman 11, bold)

Sub sections if necessary can be used. The titles of the sub sections should be in bold italic. All of these sections can also be supplemented with supporting data such as tables, diagrams, and photos. Pay attention to the proportion of the image/diagram.

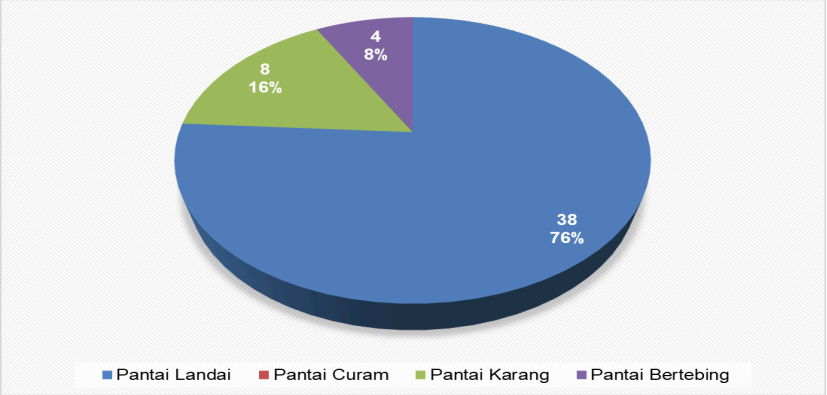

Figure 1. Image Title (Times New Roman 8pt, bold)
Source: Image source, year (if sourced from the author, then write "Author")

(single space)

Make sure your illustrations/images are clear and easy to read. While an example of writing a table:

Tabel 1. Xxxxxxxxxxxxxx (Times New Roman 8pt, bold)

Tabel	Table Column Head
	Table column subhead	Subhead	Subhead
copy	More table copy[a]

Source: Image source, year (if sourced from the author, then write “Author”)

(single space)

CONCLUSION (Times New Roman 11, bold, required chapter structure)

Contains conclusions from the background, answers to the problems, and a summary of the research results or design results that are narrated sequentially.

(single space)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography only contains the sources referred to, and all sources referred to must be listed in this article. The literature used comes from scientific articles or books published within the last 10 years. Using APA (7th Edition) and compiled using a reference manager, such as Mendeley.