

Contribute knowledge and experience to society

Need a lot of assistance and care

Stage between childhood and adulthood

Creating an identity

Very Late Adulthood

Becoming independent

Adolescence

Ages 55-78

Young Adulthood

Retire

The Thirties

Begin working

Middle Age

Marry

Late Adulthood

Beyond 75

Reevaluating life choices made earlier

Directions: Cut and match each description to the proper stage.

Finding career and relationship stability

Ages 40-55

Parents adjust to independent children

Make major life changes

Health problems very common

Establishing roots

Find new hobbies

Become more politically and socially active

Take on a part-time job

Health issues arise

Spend time with grandchildren

People in their twenties

Finish education