- Whole school skating at QPEC went off without a hitch
- A wonderful 100th day of school was had on Feb 17
- African dancing group came in to help celebrate Black History Month
- School basketball travel team had a good season
- Started a Racism Education group for staff after we were dealing with some racist language; we have met 3 times (once Tracey Mulder- RCH Coordinator for SSRCE was in attendance); we have started to develop lessons for staff to use
- CLT- short cycles of planning and implementation goals that support our School Success Plan continues- currently in the third cycle
- Made up our own Wellness Survey for students to share how they are feeling at school
- Mi'maw Storyboard project started in March and continues; hoping to have it finished before school ends
- Common Math assessment was created by the Math CLT team; this was administered for every grade; the CLT group marked the assessments and now we are awaiting the results. A Math Data Wall is going to be made using the results
- Wikuom was vandalized; lots of support in trying to get it rebuilt. Adam and Isaac are working hard and are working closely with Elder Todd Labrador and his daughter Melissa to make sure the rebuild is what it should be
- Working with the Literacy team at SSRCE to help with moving our kids forward- specifically Grades P-2
- Principal Evaluation- all staff was involved in this
- Young Neptune performance
- Bus driver/custodial staff strike averted!
- Scott and Stacy met with Amanda Allen from SSRCE to go over our schedule for next year
- Autism Acceptance Day; specific days in April we had students read about Autism on the announcements
- Scott and Stacy were involved in the staffing process for the first time
- Transition meetings for next year have begun; we have completed the meetings for the Pre-Primary students headed into Grade Primary
- Grade 3 Provincial Assessments- May 15-16 (ELA); May 23-24 (Math)
- Visits to SQMS have started for those students who may need them
- Planning for end of year trips have started

- Field day will be run by some high school students this year (Early June)
- Alison Williams is doing something different with the Grades 1s and 2s- "Informances"- parents are invited to come to class to see what the students are doing
- Book Fair- for the first time in a while will be taking place from May 29 to June 2
