Overview

This is a free digital SFW Genshin Impact zine featuring certain Vision holders of each element showcasing them with that particular theme.

Contributors will be creating artwork and writings theming around the element of the volume.

This volume's element is: Pyro

This project aims to feature:

- 1 Cover Artist
- 30-35 Page/Comic Artists
- 5-10 Merch Artists
- 5-10 Spot Artists
- 15-20 Writers

Contributors will pick a character or a set of characters they'd like to feature in their piece. Other characters are allowed to appear in a minor capacity, but the featured character(s) should be the focus of the work.

(Eg. Your featured character is Klee, but you would like to include Jean or Albedo chasing after her is acceptable as long as the main focus of the work is Klee)

Characters are not limited to playable ones. Any character with Pyro affinity can be featured.

(Eg. Signora, Atea, etc.)

We want to feature as a wide variety of characters as possible, so slots for characters will be limited. Characters will be assigned as close to the first-choice preference as possible, but contributors are not guaranteed to be assigned their first choice.

Rules

- Work for the project and communications will be in English.
- This is a SFW project.
- Contributors must be at least 16 years of age as of February 7th, 2026:
- Primary method of communication will be through Discord. Contributors will be required to make an account and join the project's Discord server during onboarding. Applicants will be asked to link alternative methods of communication to be used in the event that mods are unable to reach a contributor via Discord and email.

- Contributors will be expected to communicate regularly with mods which includes submitting work-in-progress during the scheduled check-ins on time, communicating any delays or setbacks that may occur, asking any questions, and communicating if they would like to drop from the project.
- This project has a strict NO PLAGIARISM and NO AI Policy. This means contributors must create an original work for this project. Plagiarism does include and is not limited to: reusing preexisting works (including your own), heavily referencing preexisting works, tracing, etc. Any evidence of these violations can lead to that contributor being removed from the project and possibly being blacklisted from future projects.
- Contributors are not allowed to publicly share their works until AFTER the zine is released. This includes works-in-progress.

Things to Note

- This is a free zine, so contributors will not receive any monetary compensation.
- Contributors retain all rights to their works and can do as they wish with them after the project is released.

FAQ

How Will Character Assignments be Given Out and Am I Guaranteed My Favorite Character?

Contributors upon intake will list the top 5 characters they would like to work on upon onboarding by filling out the intake form. Assignments will be based on giving contributors their top preference but also making sure we have an even distribution of characters showcased in the project.

While we will try to assign everyone their preferred characters, you are not guaranteed to be assigned your top preference and depending on how the distribution looks, we will be assigned at least one of your 5 top preferred characters.

Am I Allowed to Include Non-Pyro Characters in My Work?

Yes, to a minimal degree, as we would like the main focus to be on the Pyro character.

Are AUs Allowed?

No, this will be a canon compliant project with some canon divergence allowed.

Are Ships Allowed?

Platonic ships are allowed to a minimum capacity and should not be the main focus of the piece.
