What Makes These Mail Order Bride Sites the Best

The answer is simple - the attitude of the creators of the platforms. Each of these websites offers their members the best experience possible. You can be sure that by registering on any of the mentioned mail order bride websites you will find your bride. The key to their efficiency is the searching programs they develop for matching, a huge database of members and a fair price with the useful features.

Another vital point is security. Today it is extremely important to have all your accounts and passwords safe. While some free websites do not guarantee you such a requirement, the selected ones put a lot of effort into their security policy.

At last, mail order bride websites not only have to have efficient tools, but also a great database of users. Here you can be sure that you will meet so many astonishing girls that your mind will go crazy.

Things to Remember About Mail Order Bride Websites

Changing your habits is always difficult. If you have never tried to find women online, you might find mail order bride sites confusing at first. So let's figure out some basic principles about mail order bride websites functions and features.

There are dozens of international dating sites for online-dating on the Web. The competition on the market is so strong that sometimes some companies run after quantity, but not quality. That is why before registering on any platform, you should bear in mind some points.

- Firstly, it is always good to read reviews on the mail order bride website, people's testimonials and also visit the page to see if it suits you.
- Secondly, some mail-order bride websites may be fraudsters. So the best thing you can do is look through the catalog of members if it's possible. If you notice suspicious accounts, for example, the ones without an avatar, you should think twice before using the platform.
- Thirdly, you should know that if you decide to start a journey on this path of online-dating, then you should stick to it. Communicate with people on the website every day, act as if you were meeting up with people in the bar and want to continue your relationship.

To get the best result possible, don't hesitate using as many communication tools as possible. Depending on the website, you get to choose various ways to chat. Also, you may send flowers or gifts to the girl of your choice. Behave yourself as if you are going out on real dates because that is what online dating is about.

Frequently Asked Questions About International Mail Order Bride Sites

Does the website I choose matter?

If you are into legit mail order bride sites usually have strong fraud prevention teams, detailed guidelines on how not to become a victim of a scammer and they take a hardline stance on all malicious users who managed to register and dodge scam-preventing measures. If you want to communicate with Slavic women with no negative consequences, it is better for you to use SofiaDate. In case you are a fan of Asian women, you can give a shot to SakuraDate. Both of the sites, mentioned above, are known to have a strong anti-scam system as well as fair policies and pricing. Sure enough, there are lots of other options for you in international mail order brides, but these sites are great for anyone looking to meet his second half.

Why are some sites free and others not?

Unfortunately, nowadays not all mail order bride sites provide the highest level of protection and confidentiality to their users. The sites where there is the risk for you to bump into fake women accounts are typically free.

Meanwhile, paid sites dedicate a lot of their time to user protection as they have means to afford the high level of security. Paid sites also know that it is challenging for their male users to communicate with Russian, Ukrainian, and Asian women, so they also create the best communication opportunities for them including translators. For example, the most popular among Ukrainian mail order bride paid sites are chatting, emailing, Skype-calls, gifts and flowers delivery. All in all, if you want to get the best services, you need to pay for them, though it's just symbolic – you get much more in return.

What are the best International mail order bride sites?

Most Westerners who are interested in Eastern European mail order brides use site SofiaDate. This platform has lots of unique features which it has successfully developed within the past decade. Users give kudos to the platform as it allows them to send Slavic women instant messages and get in touch with them via webcam connection. However, if you are most interested in Eastern women, SakuraDate will be the best for you. SakuraDate also provides you with the highest confidentiality, and it also has a variety of tools that will help you initiate a conversation and develop relationships with Asian women.

Are there any alternatives?

Sure, LoveForHeart is another great Ukrainian mail order bride site, whereas NaomiDate will perfectly suit you if you are looking for Asian ladies. They both allow its members to use such advanced services as flowers and gifts delivery.

What's the Average Mail Order Brides Pricing?

The bride's price doesn't imply one-time spending. That doesn't mean you spend, for example, $10,000 and take the girl you like to your home country.

The process of getting a would-be wife is delicate and lengthy. Thus, all spending is worth planning. The total mail order brides cost can range from $2,000 to $30,000. In some ways, it's more pricey than money spent on dating American ladies. However, foreign girls are worth the money spent on them.

The price consists of many factors like:

- the mail-order bride sites you use
- the country where your bride-to-be lives
- extra costs

Online costs of mail order bride

When you decide to find a mail order bride from another country, the first thing to do is pick up a reliable dating source with a good track record. Learn how much mail order brides cost you on such platforms:

Base price

There's no need to be greedy, as the dating platforms have verified profiles and charge fair money for their services. On most of the mail order bride sites or dating resources, you'll have to pay a monthly subscription price that can vary from $20 to $50.

Some websites have a credit system, which means you aren't paying for a month of using services, but you are buying the so-called credits from $10 to $50 for 100–300 credits and, as a rule, you use them for 2 or 3 weeks.

Extra charges

Besides, don't forget about the additional services like a translator, video calls, or sending gifts via the dating site. For these extras, you may charge an additional fee. For example, if you've made up your mind to align your fate with a Chinese lady, you should remember that not all girls in China are good at English. So, you'll have to pay for translation services, and the Chinese mail order bride price will be higher.

The cost of a Brazilian wife is lower, as most local beauties speak English well enough. Thus, you may save some money.

Privileges

The greater part of the features mentioned above you can get while purchasing the VIP membership. Its price can vary from $50 to $150 per month and contains the full set of services. Not everyone can find their one and only in a couple of weeks or months. Despite the plenty of pretty girls from different countries, most men still prefer those with whom they have a mental intimacy. That's why you can spend from several weeks to several months on the site, and your mail order bride pricing can be from $200 to $1,000, for instance.

How much does it cost for a mail order bride offline meeting?

The next stage is inspiring, and it doesn't make it any cheaper, but even more expensive. Here you have found your sweetheart, and it's time to move on to the point of getting to know her face-to-face. Of course, you can try to play the fox and invite a girl to your country, but it won't be manly, and it's unlikely that a sensible girl wants to go to an unknown country alone, even to a guy she likes. Once you've opted to buy a wife online, do your best to carry everything to its logical conclusion.

So, plan your trip to the new country to be able to save on airfare. The earlier you book the tickets, the cheaper they'll cost you. The ticket price also depends on your bride's residence country. For example, a ticket from the USA to China will cost on average $985, to Ukraine—$800–850, and Brazil—$780. Perhaps, you'll need to fly several times to ensure that she's the only one for you. Yes, you can order a bride online from all over the planet, but are you ready to become a long-distance traveler?

When you arrive in the country, you have a place to stay. If you choose a hostel, the price may vary from $5–15 per night in some Asian countries (Thailand, Vietnam, or Philippines) to $15–30 in Eastern European countries (Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Czech Republic, and Hungary.)

Comfortable hotels can cost from $50 to $120 per night. Remember: the bigger the city is, the higher your spending will be.

How much you'll spend on the courting process

Spending money on courting mail order brides for sale, you won't go halfway around the world for a couple of days. At least, you'll stay with your sweetheart for a few weeks. Therefore, you should vary your leisure time.

You'll have to take your bride to restaurants, bars, spend money on cabs and pleasant surprises and gifts for her. Indeed, you can show your generosity and buy her a gold necklace for $1,500 or simply present her a bouquet of her favorite flowers and a soft toy for $25. There's no clear answer to the question, 'How much does a wife cost?' in this situation.

As mentioned above, if your chosen one didn't speak English well and didn't have time to improve her speaking skills before meeting you, you should hire an interpreter. Apart from the general mail order brides cost, you'll pay for interpreter's services from $15 to $70 per hour.

Wedding and immigration to your home country

The largest share of the cost of a mail order bride is all the wedding stuff. For example, in Eastern European countries (Ukraine, Russia, Belarus), the wedding expenses can range from $4,500 to $9,000, depending on the bride's demands. In Latin America, you'll pay for a lovely ceremony from $3,500 to $8,500. Having decided to marry a Chinese woman, be prepared to spend $12,000–30,000.

The wedding feast isn't the last expense. The immigration process will take a lot of your time and money. The payment of consular and visa fees may vary from year to year, but on average, it's $250–300. Assuming that you'll collect and submit all necessary documents yourself. But if you aren't good at this sort of thing, keep in mind to include the cost of lawyer's services.

As you can see, it's tough to calculate and name the exact cost of mail order brides. Be prepared that your wife's expenses may differ slightly from the amount you planned to invest from the average cost of mail order bride. After all, you're buying a wife with whom you're going to create a loving family and raise your kids. Thus, it makes no sense to get greedy and cry about an extra dollar spent! You're investing in your happiness, and isn't it worth it?
