TEORÍA Y EJEMPLOS

Topic 1: Present perfect vs. Past simple

What's the difference? Present Perfect and Past Simple

Present Perfect Simple	Past Simple
Acciones inacabadas que comenzaron en el pasado y continúan hasta el presente/ Unfinished actions that started in the past and continue to the present:  I have known Julie for ten years (y todavía la conozco).	Acciones terminadas/ Finished actions: I knew Julie for ten years (pero luego se apartó y hemos perdido contacto).
Una acción terminada en la vida de alguien (cuando la persona todavía está viva: experiencia de vida): My brother has been to Mexico three times.	Una acción terminada en la vida de alguien (cuando la persona está muerta): My great-grandmother went to Mexico three times.
Una acción terminada con un resultado en el presente: I've lost my keys! (El resultado es que no puedo entrar a mi casa ahora).	Una acción terminada sin resultado en el presente: I lost my keys yesterday. ¡Fue terrible! (Ahora no hay resultado. Ayer recibí nuevas claves).
Con una palabra de tiempo inacabada (this week, this month, today):  I've seen John this week.	Con una palabra de tiempo terminado (last week, last month, yesterday): ISAW John last week.

Recuerda: Usamos el pasado simple para eventos pasados o acciones que no tienen conexión con el presente. A continuación, se te presentan dos estructuras del pasado simple. Una con el verbo To Be y otra con los demás verbos.

Usamos el presente perfecto para acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y todavía están sucediendo ahora O para acciones terminadas que tienen una conexión con el presente. Estudia la tabla que se te presenta a continuación y comprende la estructura del tiempo presente perfecto para los diferentes sujetos de una oración.

We form the present perfect with have / has + past participle.

The past participle often ends in -ed (e.g. worked), but there are many irregular past participles (e.g. been).

Affirmative

I / we / you / they have ('ve) raised some money.

He / she / it has ('s)

Negative I / we / you / they haven't worked. He / she / it hasn't Questions Have/you/they (ever) planted a Yes, I / they have. No, I / they haven't.

Topic 2: Past continuous:

PAST CONTINUOUS

We use it ...

Has she/he

 1. To talk about an action in progress at a certain time in the past.

tree?

- Ej. Yesterday at 10:00 I was having dinner.

- Ej. While I was studying, my sister was playing the guitar.
- 3.For an action in progress in the past interrupted by a sudden action.

En el cuadro de la izquierda nos explican que el pasado continuo se usa para:

1. Hablar a cerca de una acción en progreso en un tiempo específico en el pasado.

Ejemplo: Ayer a las 10:00 yo estaba cenando.

2. Para dos o más acciones sucediendo al mismo tiempo en el pasado.

S + was/were + not + V-ing

She was not sleeping when he came home.

1. hablar sobre una actividad planificada en el futuro. Es decir, ya hemos decidido qué pretendemos hacer o ir.

Examples: We are going to visit your grandmother on this Sunday.

I'm going to join the Red Cross.

2. hacer una predicción sobre el futuro basada en la evidencia de la situación actual.

Examples: The paper was so difficult. I'm going to fail the exam.

The taxi is late. We are going to miss our flight.

3. cuando algo está por suceder.

Examples: The bell is going to ring any minute now. She is going to fall off the cliff.

Structure:

Affirmative: Subject + [am/is/are + going to] + verb + comple. Negative: Subject + [am/is/are +not+ going to] + verb + compl.

Questions: [am/is/are + Subject + going to] + verb+ complement+?

Usamos Will para:

Yes, she / he has. No, she / he hasn't.

1. Hablar de hechos futuros o de lo que creemos que es verdad.

Examples: The 21st FIFA World Cup will be held in Russia.

Mrs. Jenson will retire next year.

2. cuando acabamos de decidir hacer algo. Aquí, la voluntad se utiliza en el momento de tomar las decisiones.

Examples: I'll have a soda and a sandwich. I'll buy this blue dress and that red t-shirt.

3. también se puede utilizar para expresar una promesa, oferta, solicitud o invitación.

Examples: I'll come home early today. Will you shut the door when you go out?

One day, I will become a doctor.

Documenting the issues of our time

The Sundance Institute is a non-profit organisation founded by the actor Robert Redford in 1981. Its documentary film programme helps new documentary makers, by running workshops on editing and story-telling, and also giving funds to films about human rights, freedom of expression, social justice, civil liberties and other important issues of our time. They have given almost $5.2 million to over 175 projects in 52 different countries. Their aims are to discover, support and inspire independent filmmakers around the world and introduce audiences to their new work. By supporting films like these, they are also helping to raise public awareness of important issues. One of the projects the programme has helped is a film called How to Change the World by the director Jerry Rothwell, which is about the founders of Greenpeace. Through Sundance and its members, the director managed to raise more than £25,000 to help distribute it and give it a bigger audience.

The Sundance Institute also holds an annual film festival in Utah, where around
