

Dribbling Scoring Sheet

*Reference Critical Elements from Rubric

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
The student is unable to dribble with their dominant hand or foot and change directions while maintaining possession for at least 3 of 4 trials and The student is able to dribble with their non-dominant hand or foot and change directions while maintaining possession for at least 3 of 4 trials.	The student is able to dribble with their dominant hand or foot and change directions while maintaining possession for at least 3 of 4 trials and The student is able to dribble with their non-dominant hand or foot and change directions while maintaining possession for at least 3 of 4 trials.	The student is able to dribble with their dominant hand or foot, and change directions and speed while maintaining possession against a defender for at least 3 of 4 trials or The student is able to dribble with their non-dominant hand or foot, and change directions and speed while maintaining possession against a defender for at least 3 of 4 trials.	The student is able to dribble with their dominant hand or foot, and change directions and speed while maintaining possession against a defender for at least 3 of 4 trials and The student is able to dribble with their non-dominant hand or foot, and change directions and speed while maintaining possession against a defender for at least 3 of 4 trials.	In addition to Level 4, the student is able to describe in writing when and why to change direction and speed based on defender positioning.	The student is able to provide a written critique of their own OR the teacher's performance of how they dribble with dominant and non-dominant hand or foot while changing directions and speed in small-sided modified games against defenders, addressing all five of the critique criteria.	The student is able to develop a strategy in writing based on their own performance dribbling with dominant and non-dominant hand or foot while changing directions and speed in small-sided modified games against defenders that addresses all four strategy criteria.