CONCLUSION

Provide a statement of what is expected, as stated in the "Introduction" chapter can ultimately result in the "Results and Discussion" chapter, so there is compatibility. Moreover, it can also be added to the prospect of the development of research results and application prospects of further studies into the next step (based on results and discussion).

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The acknowledgement is a form of appreciation for the contribution of an institution or an individual who is not considered the writer, for example, an institution or an individual who provides the research funding (funding support) for this publication.

AUTHOR CONTRIBUTION STATEMENT

The Author Contributions Statement can be up to several sentences long and should briefly describe the tasks of individual authors. Please list only 2 initials for each author, without full stops, but separated by commas (e.g., JC, JS). In the case of two authors with the same initials, please use their middle initial to differentiate between them (e.g., REW, RSW). The Author Contributions Statement should be included at the end of the manuscript before the References.

REFERENCES

The following are the reference writing guidelines of Online Learning in Educational Research. The references should be written to justify alignment and alphabetically. We suggest you use Mendeley's management reference with APA style for your references. The guideline, for example below:
