

Virtual Theater Publicity: "I Miss Acting"

Carl Danielson

KIMBERLY MAE WALLER stars in "I Miss Acting," the story of a winter night in the life of Teagan, a working actor benched for the pandemic who wants a night of normalcy. Then a dolphin shows up on her Tinder profile. Since dolphins can't get COVID she goes for it, and normalcy ensues. Sort of! "I Miss Acting" is a quirky and sad reflection on all we have lost. And at only twenty minutes, it will not appreciably contribute to your Zoom fatigue!