Working Process

- I will email/dm you once I am ready to start your commission to check up if you are still interested. If you've changed your mind, please let me know about it;
- Please make sure you check your email/dm(I will tell you my discord) once in a while. If you're not answering me for more than 24 hours I may start doing the next work in my queue. If you are not answering me for more than a week I will put you at the end of my queue. If you are not answering me for more than a month, I automatically remove you from my queue;
- Once we start working together, please make sure you check your email/dm once in a day or two. I'll be sending you the WIP screenshots once in a while for you to check up, in case we will need to fix or add something to a drawing. Please mind that the amount of time I spend on your commission heavily depends on how fast you are with your feedback;
- I take 50% or 100% payment in advance. After payment I send you a rough pose doodle during 1-3 days. After that I send a detailed sketch, color sketch etc. Then Important! If you made a 50% prepayment at this stage, you will have to pay for the drawing in full before the final drawing stage. I send you the final files in high resolution (only with signature);
- An average commission may take me from 3 to 15+ working days to finish if you answer me regularly;
- If you have any more questions, please contact me via e-mail: 1risouart@gmail.com or DM on my socials (deviant art, instagram, twitter).
