Thank you for registering for Cartonnage Open Workshop class taught by April Brown!

Class fee: $40.00

Cartonnage is an amazing technique. Making your own fabric box is a great idea! It is so fun and it makes a unique handmade gift! You can make your own keepsake boxes, cases and much more out of paperboard, fabric and glue with this lovely craft!! And your pieces will be sturdy as wood, but made with your favorite fabric!

Supplies needed for this class:
- Any In-Stock Cartonnage Kit
- Fabric per instructions (please stay away from Solid fabrics and very dark fabrics)
- Rotary cutter and Cutting mat
- Small cutting ruler 12 inch max (optional)
- Small scissors (optional)

PRE-CLASS PREPARATION:

-Open mind
-Ready to have fun

BEE MINDFUL:

- When taking a class at Mad B’s please bee mindful of any strong-smelling perfumes, essential oils, lotions, and sprays you may be wearing. Some of our customers and employees are sensitive to these smells, and we would like to ensure that this can be a welcoming space for everyone.

CANCELLATION POLICY: In the event that you need to cancel your enrollment, a seven (7) day notice is required to receive a full refund of the class fee or store credit. If there is less than a seven (7) day notice provided, Mad B's will attempt to fill the seat with another customer. If the slot is filled, you may receive a full refund of the class fees or store credit. If Mad B's is unable to fill the cancelled seat, your class fee will be forfeited.

If you have any questions, regarding this class or its requirements, please call us at (480) 964-8914.