

Essentials for Project SEARCH

Power Essential

Students will apply practical reasoning to promote essential life skills for demonstrating transferable and employability skills in work/career settings.

Learning Target:

- I can / will identify the basic skills and traits that are common to success in the workplace
- I can / will apply tips and techniques for skills to enter the workplace
- I can / will recognize the causes of conflict and learn ways to resolve it

Power Essential

Students will apply practical reasoning to promote essential life skills towards building work relationships.

Learning Target:

- I can / will demonstrate verbal and nonverbal communication and learn effective communication techniques.
- I can / will identify appropriate conversational topics
- I can / will recognize the causes of conflict and learn ways to resolve it

Power Essential

Students will apply practical reasoning skills to promote essential life skills for employment

Learning Target:

- I can / will identify job application terms
- I can / will complete a job application
- I can / will identify appropriate interview attire
- I can / will demonstrate interview techniques

Power Essential

Students will apply practical reasoning to promote essential life skills for managing one's life and money, and making consumer choices.

Learning Target:

- I can / will identify money and make change with the use of a calculator
- I can / will read an Earnings Statement
- I can / will open a checking account and maintain a checking account

- I can / will demonstrate an understanding of wants and needs
- I can / will identify pro's and con's of credit card usage and how to use it responsibly

Power Essential

Students will apply practical reasoning to promote essential life skills for community integration.

Learning Target:

- I can / will identify the importance of respecting others, themselves, and their community.
- I can / will demonstrate verbal and nonverbal communication and learn effective communication techniques.
- I can / will demonstrate how to locate items in the grocery store
- I can / will identify/locate important places and phone numbers in the community (police/fire station, hospital, library, etc.)