Rebel Ma - Healing in the Time of the Feminine
Women's Stories of Liberation
New Collective Book Project from House of Wild Publishing

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

House of Wild Publishing's newest collective book project Rebel Ma - Healing in the Time of the Feminine - Women's Stories of Liberation - is open for applications for women ready to share their story and become bestselling authors in 2024.

This is the second volume in our Rebel Ma Rising series. The first book was an international bestselling sensation and a sanctuary of radical awakening for the authors and readers alike.

RebelMa - Healing in the Time of the Feminine - Women's Stories of Liberation shares stories of heart-felt hope and healing from rebel women all over the world who have been broken open by the waves and wildfires of change only to find empowerment through their pain and meaning in the messiness and are now courageously sharing in service to the collective.

Rebel Ma has leaned into the crevices of her soul on her healing journey home, mined for the gold, alchemised diamonds from stones, de-shamed and reframed her pain and has come to a deep remembrance that she is not powerless, she was born for this.

Despite facing adversity through injuries, illness, loss, heartbreak, war and crisis their resilience shows the strength of the human spirit, transforming their trauma into triumph and bitterness into beauty they have come out the other side, the mother side, and are leading the way to what has been prophesied, the return to the time of the feminine.

Rebel Ma will be an inspiration for truth-speaking, soul-seeking women navigating their own dark night of the soul so she never feels alone. Let Rebel Ma be your guiding light through this collective dark night as we continue to be forged by the fires of pain, melted and remoulded again and again, only to rise from the ashes of our own cremation and be a stand for collective liberation.

If this makes you wet then you are ready to say YES to Rebel Ma - Healing in the Time of the Feminine - Women's Stories of Liberation.

About you

This authorship journey is for the change-makers, cycle-breakers, risk-takers, sacred disruptors and slayers of the status-quo.

She who knows and goes bravely in the direction of her dreams even when it means dying to who she once was and saying goodbye to places, patterns and people she loves.

Shedding and shredding that which no longer serves her.
Unearthing, rebirthing and rewriting her-story.

She sits in the shitiness.
She shifts the suffering and sadness.
She tunes in and listens.
She's led by her deep dark feminine wisdom.
She makes intuitive, heart-centred decisions.

She is unravelling thousands of years of patriarchal conditioning.
She shatters outdated belief systems.
She refuses to be defined by the past and is blazing a new path with no fucks given on her mission to do things different.

She's okay with being misunderstood.
She's destroyed the people pleaser within her for good.
She won't be crushed by the weight of disappointment.
She is her own self-soothing ointment.

Reparenting.
Rewilding.
Reclaiming.
Recalibrating.

She doesn't need to prove her worth.
She is a sovereign being.
An ancestor-in-training.
A child of Mother Earth.

Soft heart.
Strong back.
She no longer comes from a place of lack.
When standing in her truth she doesn't hold back.

She embraces her wild and restless messiness.
Owns her unique sensuality and sexiness.
Authentic and unapologetic in her self-expression.
No longer contributing to her own self-silencing suppression.

She's leaned into the crevices of her soul.
Found grace in her grief.
Mined for the gold.
Alchemised diamonds from stones.
She is the revolution and she knows it's won in her open heart and loving home.

Her pleasure is her birthright.
Her peace is her offering.
Her awakening is her legacy.
She remembers who she came here to be.

Not just for herself but for humanity.

She has descended to the depths of her shadows, alchemised them into light and she is now in the business of transforming other people's lives.

She desires to inspire and reach more people with her embodied wisdom, soul-work and feminine power.

She is ready to share her-story and expand her reach and visibility in a circle of sisterhood and community.

She knows there's never been a more important time to learn how to express herself fearlessly while being held in a circle of women holding one prayer for peace, justice, freedom and unity.

Rebel Ma is an emerging archetype for the modern woman who is healing, feeling, awakening, rising and walking us home the new and ancient way.

The Rebel Ma energy is not to fight against but to build for.

To be a Rebel Ma is not just an act of defiance, it's a way of living, loving and leading ourselves and our tribes.

You get to share the story of your own healing journey and feminine awakening as you walk the path of remembrance and inspire other women who may be a few steps behind you.

Your chapter count is 3000 words which gives you the opportunity to blend storytelling with potent steps that will activate the reader and give them a taste of your feminine medicine to support them in their own radical awakening.

You will also have a bio and link to your website and / or resources that they can further explore with the click of a finger.

You get to share your her-story, your own heroine's journey and leave a legacy of wisdom and words imprinted on history to hand down your family tree.

Your Rebel Ma journey may be in the way you are consciously conceiving, sacredly grieving, birthing babies and soul-aligned businesses, healing lifetimes and lineages and reviving the art of the feminine mysteries.

You can share:

- Healing is possible: How your life has shifted since you moved through adversity, woke up to the truth and power that lies within you and started living life on your terms unapologetically.
- Healing is collective: How your healing journey has led you to be the woman you are today and inspired the gifts you now share in service to the collective leading the way for others to do the same.
- Healing is alchemy: What are the lessons and blessings you have experienced that you have alchemized into pure embodied wisdom and that can support the women reading in their own transformation and liberation.

In light of the current crazy genocidal times we are living in and the dangerous censorship of mainstream and social media platforms we are experiencing I am re-envisioning for the revolution and I want this book to be in line with sacred reciprocity and to amplify the voices and stories of women on the frontlines of this shift in paradigms. For any woman who has the means to say YES and invest, we will be opening up a space for another woman with less financial abundance from marginalised, colonised black and brown communities who need a platform more than ever to get their stories out there and narrate their history on their terms.

Check out our manifesto and tell me you can feel it in your heart, womb & bones

We are the women, the witches, the mothers, the lovers, the teachers, the healers, the feelers and the leaders of the feminine rising.

We are the deep house dancing, yoga loving, tree hugging, adventure booking, festival frolicking kinda women.

We emanate an un-fuck-with-able feminine frequency.

We are the wild and the free.

At home in our bodies.

Nothing to fix.

*Everything to feel.
Walking the path of liberation through our own radical awakening.
We know there's no revolution without the inner rebellion.
We are being what it takes to truly have it ALL.
No more lurking in the shadows playing small.
Creating a new paradigm of both and, not either or.
Leaving scarcity and martyrdom at the door.
Embodying abundance consciousness, reciprocity and love.
Unavailable for victim mentality.
Stepping into radical self-responsibility.
Leading with vulnerability and authentic humility.
Rebelling against the patriarchal system by refusing to play a role in its rigidity.
We embrace rest & pleasure as acts of resistance.
We let life in by slowing down and opening to receive.
We are sacred.
We honour our bleed.
Our word is our wand.
Our wombs our weapons.
Lit up and liberated.
Forgiveness and compassion armour-plated.
We are the risk-takers, the cycle-breakers and the chain-makers.
Healing lifetimes and lineages of shame, suffering and separation.
Sitting on our throne as the queens of creation.
No more doing out of obligation.
We are the warrior hearts in relentless pursuit of love, freedom and truth.
The gateway to heaven on earth.
Impregnated with a whole new world our children are trusting in us to birth.
We're taking back control of this ship and we're steering it towards peace, harmony and bliss.
Using our hands, voices and spirits as our healing tools.
No more giving away our power.
Going in the direction we choose.
Standing strong as sovereign pillars of love & light.
We do what we KNOW is right.
We gather, create, pray and play in the realm of possibility.
We are reclaiming the memory of our sacred ancestry.
Resurrecting the Mother from the oppression of patriarchal culture.
Decolonizing our minds, bodies, souls and the Earth.
Returning to the Time of the Feminine where Mothers and children come first.*

We are multi-dimensional creatrixes, fully-expressed priestesses, fierce protectresses, agents of the goddess.

We are divinity personified.

Unafraid of our superpowers.

Living our dreams and wildest desires.

Because you can't burn a woman already on fire.

CAN YOU FEEL HER?

Then join us in sharing your story and creating a ripple of love, hope and healing with your wisdom and words. This is the legacy piece you have been dreaming of.

At House of Wild we take the HoW out of publishing so you can get lost in your juicy creative flow. Let's go & let's grow together in sisterhood and celebration.

Contributing to a multi-author book is an initiatory journey like no other and I will be there to hold your hand as you ride the waves of the doubts and fears that try to hold you back from standing in your truth.

It will be a process of writing your story and setting yourself free as you witness your conditioning and sit in the fire of your feelings, unbecoming everything you thought you were to become the woman and Rebel Ma you were born to be.

It is my deepest honour to hold this transformational space for my sisters to help mine, shine and refine your story giving it the justice it deserves while ensuring you feel safe, seen, heard, held and supported through it all.

I am so passionate about my mission to inspire a movement of radically awakened women and create a powerful platform for other courageous women to be initiated and liberated through sharing their message of hope, healing and the feminine rising.

Rebel Ma is more than a book, it's a movement and I would love to welcome you into the revolution. If you are ready to step into your next level of visibility, share your truth wholeheartedly and feel supported on your journey of expansion then Rebel Ma is the book for you.

Are you ready to be a REBEL MA with me and have some fooking FUN?

SOME LOVE FROM PREVIOUS AUTHORS OF REBEL MA - RISING IN THE TIME OF THE FEMININE

Leena Carragher, CEO Australian Ceremonial Cacao / Sacred Space Facilitator

“Being a part of this container where women came together and supported each other in telling our story and portraying a part of ourselves to help others on their journey to feel like they are less alone was the best decision I ever made.

I feel very proud of myself for doing this and putting my truth out there. I feel a sense of completion sharing this story and allowing others to witness it and get what they need to get out of it.

The best part about working with Saoirse is how incredibly above and beyond supportive she is and how much I learned that I was able to bring into my own work with women. Saoirse is so inspiring and strengthening and she gave us so much clarity around writing our story and what we want to portray and share, those golden nuggets that we have within us that have the ability to inspire and initiate transformation in others.

She never leaves anybody behind or lost or confused and if anybody is struggling she will hold you at your highest. She has some amazing magical way of bringing the best out of someone and that is the truth. I just love her and her spirit and what she is creating with her energy and creativity. It is so beautiful and so world changing and I am so grateful for the opportunity.”

Ainsley Young - Feminine Embodiment Coach and Pleasure Mentor

“Being a part of the RebelMa project was fate. When I was asked to write a chapter it was an immediate 'yes' as I loved the collaborative, feminine and embodied approach Saoirse offered. There has been an abundance of support and inspiration from Saoirse and my fellow co-authors and this experience has given me even greater confidence that my voice matters and my story matters.”

Kate Konstantina - Award-winning Gadigal artist from the Eora nation.

“Wow three days worth of writing is like four years worth of therapy. It’s been a wild journey, but really, really, really, really beautiful. I am so appreciative of the opportunity to recraft my story and really allow myself to see and feel why I’m proud of my journey and it was so beautiful to craft it in a way that incorporated a divine feminine themed intersection and connection.”

Kerry Neilson - Emotional & Spiritual Teacher and Mentor

“I believe in the tao of synchronicity & I believe it was this that led me to meet & connect with Saoirse in a cafe in Bali in January. I felt that what she offered was an amazing opportunity for writers & future readers alike. We hear people say that writing can be cathartic. The former drama teacher in me thought that catharsis has to have big, huge, enormous expressions.

The writing of the chapter was cathartic but in a very different way. I underwent changes that felt soft & malleable. As I wrote, I had deepenings of understanding & acceptance of myself & others that naturally flowed into forgiveness of myself & others.

Writing the chapter was a rich, organic process that truly transformed hard, brittle internal psychic edges that were holding me back in relationships & other areas of my life. I have changed, made decisions to leave my current career & will move countries at the end of this year.

“I am 66.5 years old. I have been on a continuous recovery & healing journey since 1995. I feel privileged to tell my story & it is my sincere hope that someone connects with it & takes something from it to make a move forward in their life. Other people’s stories have always helped me when I was down, stuck or moving backwards. Life really is about receiving & giving & receiving & giving, isn’t it?”

Karin Thorburn - Marathon Runner & AiN Nurse

“I have found this whole experience a beautiful and ever evolving journey for myself - writing my memoir although at times difficult has been an amazing journey into self and reflection. It has given me a deeper understanding of who I am and that indeed I am capable of anything. Thanks so much Saoirse for all your wonderful support along the way.”

Adele O’Connor - Fertility Coach & Podcast Host

“I wanted to write a book but I didn’t know how to do it and I had no writing experience at all so when I received the invitation from Saoirse to be a co-author in Rebel Ma I knew it was the right thing to do. Writing my chapter for Rebel Ma gave me such a sense of clarity around the why in my business and an enormous sense of achievement. The best part about working with Saoirse is that she is so authentic and creative and a wonderful nurturing leader and her writing and speaking skills are next level, she is such an inspiration for all us newbie writers. If you have an inkling to work with Saoirse, do it, sign up. It's the best thing ever."

Jenny Vanderheld - Mother Mentor

"Writing my chapter was an epic journey personally, but it was so much more than just writing a chapter in a book as Saoirse's feminine leadership teachings had a profound impact on my work and what I am capable of facilitating for the women I support who have lost their identity through mothering. I am so appreciative of this rite of passage journey and the clarity and confidence it has given me in making sense of my own story and sharing it in service to the collective. For this I am forever grateful. You are an incredible service to all women you empower to rise for themselves. Thank you so much Saoirse."

Barbara Conway - Legal Secretary, Women's Circle Facilitator and Grandmother

"Contributing to Rebel Ma was the most magical amazing life changing experience. In my chapter I spoke about trauma that had happened to me and the sobriety journey that I am on now and stuff i had never spoken about before and I didn't know how people would take it but i wrote from my heart and wanted to be authentic and the support Saoirse gave me really allowed me to do that without fear and believe in what I had to share.

The journey of writing the chapter and being held in a circle by a beautiful group of women supporting each other was magic. The facilitators were amazing and gave us confidence to believe in ourselves. We were held in such a safe and sacred space to really feel our feelings and be witnessed in our stories and do them justice. I could never have imagined how powerful it was going to be. Saoirse is so creative and mindful and beautiful in how she held us all.

I am forever grateful for the experience. So many positive things have happened since the book was released. I'm a different person because I have moved through this journey and let all the stuff go that I held inside me my whole life and being on this healing journey now has changed me as a person. Now I am standing in my truth in my own authentic expression and the world is responding to me and sees me in a whole new light and that never would have happened without taking part in it and having Saoirse's belief and guidance and all the other powerful women who held me and supported me through the journey.

Anyone who is thinking of joining a collective book, do it. It will change your life and all for the positive. There are no negatives. I never dreamed that one day I would be a bestselling author signing books for my family and friends and seeing my name and photo in a bestselling book blows my mind everyday and now I can pass it onto my grandchildren. I can't wait to talk to them about my journey when they grow up and give them a copy of the book so they can know me intimately and know that anything is possible when you believe in yourself and your dreams."
