

ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

1. Do you think the last hotel was (slightly less, more least) modern than this one?
 2. I hope Mike will be (more lucky, luckier, lucky) than we are.
 3. His (last, latest) words were, "The end".
 4. It's a long journey by train: it's much (quickly, more quick, quicker, more quickly) by road.
 5. This is the (most modern, modernest) dress I've ever seen.
 6. Heathrow is the (most busy, busiest) airport in Europe.
 7. Shakespeare wrote his (last, latest, latter, later) play in 1613.
 8. My new job is far better than the old one. I work (fewer, less, much less) hours and earn more.
 9. Which of the boys works (best, better) of all the boys?
 10. She always wears (the last, the latest) fashion
-
11. They played badly (at Wembley on Saturday, on Saturday at Wembley)
 12. We arrived (on Sunday morning at the station, at the station on Sunday morning)
 13. Can you come (at six o'clock to my office, to my office at six o'clock)
 14. He treats his dog (terribly, terrible) .
 15. I'll be (with you in a moment, in a moment with you) .
 16. You must drive more (careful, carefully) .
 17. Did I do (good, well) in the test?
 18. He was (publicly, publically) humiliated.
 19. Read the letter (loud, loudly, aloud) . I want to know what Mary says.
 20. The dentist told him to open his mouth (wide, widely) .
 21. He lives quite (near, nearly).
 22. It's (near, nearly) 5 o'clock.
 23. I haven't seen the postman (yet, already).
 24. I received a letter from him (recently, lately).
 25. I saw him (lately, recently).
 26. He has read (a lot, a lot of, many)
 27. My room is (more, much) larger than yours.
 28. I shall be there (either, too).
 29. I haven't seen him (too, either).
 30. They came (more, much) later than I.
 31. The door was (widely, wide) open.
 32. She travels (wide, widely) .
 33. (Than, then) I went home.
 34. I go there (always, quite often).
 35. I am going to do my exams and (after, afterwards) I am going to study medicine.
 36. Your idea sounds (greatly, great) .
 37. You sound (unhappily, unhappy)
 38. It tastes (nice, nicely). What's in it?
 39. Are you going (somewhere, anywhere) tomorrow?
 40. The plane flew very (low, lowly).
 41. I hate arriving (late, lately) .
 42. I haven't been to the theatre much (lately, late).

43. Throw it as (highly, high) as you can.
44. I can (highly, high) recommend it.
45. He can jump really (high, highly).
46. My friends are (mostly, most) non-smokers.
47. You are a (most, mostly)unusual person.
48. She is sleeping (sound, soundly).
49. Can you be there at 6 o'clock (sharp, sharply)?
50. She looked at him (sharply, sharp).
51. Jack dances very (good, well) and never steps on people's feet.
52. This train goes (fast, fastly).
53. The soup smells (awful, awfully).
54. Helen worked very (hard, hardly) and was given an extra holiday.
55. One boxer hit the other really (hard, hardly) right on the chin.
56. Everyone in the team played (good, well).
57. She was (fatally, deadly) injured in the crash.
58. Take it (easy, easily).
59. That suits me (fine, finely).
60. You can speak (free, freely). I won't tell anyone what you say.