

Weekend Announcements

Penny Swanson

August 10, 2025

Good morning! Introduce yourself (name, team you lead). We're excited to gather this morning as we focus on our mission statement—to transform every day people into fully engaged disciples of Jesus Christ. It's our hope that as you leave here today, you leave experiencing Him.

New Guests

If it's your first time here at Salt Church, we're honored to have you with us. On your bulletin, you'll see our Connect Card on the bottom. We would love to get to know you a little better, so please fill this out and take it to the New Here tent on your way out. We're proud to partner with Spencer's Place in Surprise and would love to give you a gift card to visit there as our way of saying thank you for being here.

Prayer Requests

Next, I would like to direct your attention to the back of the bulletin where there's a place to add prayer requests. Our staff and prayer team are intentional about praying over the needs of our church. If you're going through something and would like prayer, please write it down, tear it off, and drop it in the offering box at the back of the auditorium on your way out.

I have a few announcements for you before we continue in worship.

Salt Women Fall Bible Study

These first two announcements are for the women of Salt Church! We can't wait to kick off our Fall semester of Bible Study the week of September 8th with both Monday evening and Wednesday morning study options! This semester, we'll go through Jen Wilkin's God of Deliverance, a study on Exodus 1-18. We'll meet at Desert Springs Community Church. If you haven't done so already, visit saltchurchaz.com/women for all the details and to register today. There is a cost of $25 for the workbook.

Salt Women Connect: An Invitation to Belong

If you are new to Salt Church or have been attending for a while and haven't connected with our women's ministry, I'd love for you to join me next Sunday, August 17th during the 10:30am service for Salt Women Connect: An Invitation to Belong. You'll have an opportunity to learn about how to get plugged into Salt Women and meet some of the incredible volunteers who help lead this ministry. RSVP online at saltchurchaz.com/women.

Group Connect

After a quiet summer, we're excited to re-launch all of our community groups after Labor Day. Are you interested in joining? If so, Group Connect is your next step! This short, one time class will help you understand how our groups work, what to expect, and how to find the best fit for you. It will take place next Sunday, August 17th from 12-1pm. Attendance is required in order to join a group, so visit saltchurchaz.com/events to RSVP today. Lunch and childcare are provided.

Last, we'll be taking communion together this morning after the sermon. If you plan to join us, please be sure to pick up your elements from the table in the back.

Thank you again for joining us today. Please stand as we continue in worship!
