Dear Quest Families,

On December 1, 2015, the Quest Team will be going to the Flynn Theater to see a production of The Lightning Thief. This is a synopsis from the Flynn Theater website:

Percy Jackson is a normal 12-year-old, struggling with dyslexia and ADHD and trying to come to terms with the father he never knew. Of course, his father is Poseidon, and lately Percy's mythological roots seem to be climbing straight from the pages of his Greek mythology textbook! In order to bring peace to the warring Mount Olympus, Percy must come to terms with the father who abandoned him, solve the riddle of the Oracle, and unravel a treachery more powerful than the gods themselves. Based on the popular book series by Rick Riordan, this new musical comes to us from the ever-excellent TheatreworksUSA.

We will begin a Greek Mythology/ Greek history unit in late January, which will be followed by our drama unit. This will be a good opportunity for students to see a live performance. We will be able to reference this throughout our winter trimester.

We will be leaving at 11:00 on December 1st, and will return by 2:00. Students will be eating lunch either on the bus, or when we arrive. The cost for this trip is $14.00. This covers the admission ticket and the cost of the bus. It is our only Flynn trip for the year. Please make checks out to Crossett Brook Middle School. If your child needs a lunch, please indicate on the permission slip below. Please have your permission slip and money in by Monday, November 23rd. Thank-you.
