

Audio, Video, Technology and Film I
Richmond Hill High School
Stefanie Whiten
swhiten@bryan.k12.ga.us

Course Description/Course Outline - This course will serve as the foundational course in the Audio & Video Technology & Film pathway. The course prepares students for employment or entry into a postsecondary education program in the audio and video technology career field. Topics covered may include, but are not limited to: terminology, safety, basic equipment, script writing, production teams, production and programming, lighting, recording and editing, studio production, and professional ethics. All material covered in Audio & Video Technology & Film I will be utilized in later courses.

Guidelines for Success

Students are complete the assigned work and treat everyone in the class with respect

Classroom Rules

1. Put your phone away
2. Raise your hand to talk
3. Arrive on time and prepared for class
4. Respect the teacher and others
5. Trash goes in the trashcan
6. Students can leave one at a time for the bathroom
7. Stay on task

Activities

Students are to be aware that each activity will have it's own guidelines that will be explained during the first week of school.

Large-Group Activities

-Teacher-directed instruction

Independent Activities

-Tests/Quizzes
-Video viewing
-Rule of Thirds
-Worksheets and study guides
-Exit Tickets
-Georgia Best

Small-Group Activities

-TV Show Proposal
-Camera framing exercise
-Music Video

Grades

All students should know their grade within three days of the assignment. Most grades are available immediately following the assignment via Google Forms.

- 63% of final grade are summative assessments.
- 27% of final grade are daily grades. These include everything but the Chapter Test and Final Music Video.
- 10% of final grade is from Cumulative Final Exam.

Classroom Procedures

Entering the Classroom

1. Arrive on time and be in your seat by the time the bell rings.
2. Have your notebook or chrome book out and ready to get to work.
3. Wait silently for teacher direction on what activity to begin.

Tardy to Class

If you arrive after the bell rings without a note then the tardy will be reported in powerschool. A student will get one warning on their first tardy. If a student is tardy to start the school day they must go to the attendance office for a pass. After three tardies students will serve a 15-minute detention with Ms. Whiten before or after school.

Classroom Utensils

Students are to have their chrome book every day for class. If they do not have their chrome book or it is damaged they should have a notebook and a pen or pencil. If a student doesn't have something to write with they may ask to borrow a pen, but it must be returned before the end of class.

Independent Work

Students should complete the assignment in the allotted time. For exit tickets, worksheets and study guides they may ask a neighbor if they have a question. There is no talking during videos played in class or during tests/quizzes.

Turning in Assignments

All assignments will be turned in through either Google Forms or Google Drive. Ms. Whiten may ask for the assignment to be written in another form. Most grades should be available to the students immediately after they complete the assignment.

Responsibility after an Absence

Students have three days for each day of absence to complete work missed due to an excused absence. Students have the responsibility to get any notes they missed during an absence. Students are responsible to discuss with Ms. Whiten what they have missed during the absence.

Ending Class

Students are to stay in their seats until the bell rings.

Consequences for Classroom Rule Violation

If a student violates a rule they are subject to a consequence. All students are expected to follow the rules of not only this classroom but also the guidelines set forth in the student handbook. In the event of any infractions the following steps will be taken.

- Warning
- Time out or time owed
- Phone call home
- Write up or office call plus a call home
- ISS or OSS

Major infractions to the Student Handbook will result in a call to the Office with Administration involvement.