The school has many additional activities such as sports games like soccer and netball. Students also have different clubs and groups. Some of these are the Writers Club, Science Club and Wildlife Club. You know what students do in these clubs!

We usually finish classes at 13.50 and most of us walk for few minutes to our homes. Of course, most of us live not very far from our school but some, however, live far from school. When we arrive at home, we change our school uniforms before taking lunch. We rest for some few hours so that we start reading our books and write exercises.

After study we usually go and join our friends playing different games. Here in Malawi boys and girls normally play different games. Girls play netball and make dolls from clay. Boys usually play soccer, chess and basket ball. When boys and girls play together, they normally play such games as ‘Hide and Seek’.

It was eight o'clock in the evening. I arrived at Heathrow Airport with my family a few minutes ago and we were very tired after the long flight. We then went to a hotel in London and spent a couple of days before decided to travel to Dublin. some friends of ours told us to get a taxi to our hotel, so we went to look for one. The airport was very bright and modern, but when we came out, we found we were in a dark area of car parks and bus stations. We didn't see that taxi space anywhere, so we asked an old man. However, he didn't speak English. Suddenly a big, friendly man came up to us and said, "Give me your cases. I'll take them to the taxi space for you." I told him our cases were not heavy and we could take them, too. But he just picked up my wife's case and told us to follow him.

When we reached the taxi space, he put the cases down and asked me to give him ten pounds. I was very surprised. Ten pounds seemed very funny for just walking a hundred yards with one not very heavy case. But I was too tired and I didn't want to argue. I took out my wallet. However, I only had a fifty-pound note and I told him so. He said, "No problem. Give me the note and I will ask a taxi driver the change it for you." He took my note and disappeared round the corner. And of course, he never came back.

Last week I made the mistake of visiting the village where I grew up. It was a small, friendly community with two farms and a number of old cottages round the village green. I realized very quickly that although in many ways it appears unchanged, in reality hardly anything is the same. All the pretty cottages are there, of course, and both the picturesque farmhouses. But none of the inhabitants are country people. All of them are commuters, who leave early every morning for the nearby town. Neither of the farmhouses is attached to a farm these days; the land has been sold and is managed by somebody in an office somewhere who has little interest in the village itself. There are a few new houses, but they have no local character; you can see the same style anywhere in the country. The whole of the village, in fact, has been tidied up so much that it has become nothing more than just another suburb.
