

Jeon Mir, who took the mound as a pitcher in the quarterfinals against Gangneung High School, struck out seven in 7.2 innings and pitched no-hit. Jeon Mir, who threw 104 pitches, was unable to take the mound in the final round of the Blue Dragon flag due to the mandatory break day rule of high school baseball. Kyungpook High School's Jeon Mir, who played only as a batter in the water vault and the final, lifted the Blue Dragon flag for the first time in 30 years with two hits and two RBIs in four at-bats,

Kyungpook High School is aiming to win two consecutive tournaments. Jeon Mir, who took the mound as a pitcher in the round of 16 against Presidential Cup Deoksu High School on the 6th, pitched two runs perfectly in 7.1 innings. He also led the team to the quarterfinals with three hits in four at-bats.

Jeon Mir, who was timing in the waiting at-bat. In the two games ahead of the presidential Cup, he has maintained a hot batting sense of 0.625 with five hits in eight at-bats, one home run, three RBIs and two runs scored.

Mokdong Baseball Stadium on the 9th, when the quarterfinals against Cheongdam High School were held. Gyeongbuk High School attack. When leadoff hitter Kim Se-hoon walked on base in the first inning, coach Lee Joon-ho signed a sending bunt. The second batter, Park Kwan-woo, carries out the operation perfectly and has a chance to score with one out and second base. Third batter Lim Jong-sung hit a timely hit to the right-center.

Jeon Mir 'revenge success' to score a hit against a pitcher who struck out in his previous at-bat Jeon Mir, who started as the fourth designated hitter, put his hand on his helmet and politely greeted the referee as he entered the first inning with one out and second base, which was his first at-bat. Jeon Mir, who was struck out by Cheongdam High School's Song Geun-yeop's breaking ball after a persistent game, checked what the ball was struck out by Kim Se-hoon, the No. 1 hitter with good pioneering eyes, after entering the dugout. Jeon Mir, who was disappointed to be struck out, held the bat again and swung at the right timing.

Jeon Mir, the fourth batter who lost his pride after striking out his former at-bat. Jeon Mir, who entered the batter's box as the leadoff hitter in the fourth inning with a 1-0 lead, succeeded in revenge by hitting a clean right-handed hit against Song Geun-yeop, who struck out the previous batter's box.

Kyungpook High School succeeded in reversing the game as Park Kwan-woo, the second batter with one out and second base, hit a timely turnaround in the eighth inning when it was tied 2-2. Since then, while Lee Seung-hyun's straight hit hit the glove of second baseman Park Sung-bae with one out and full base, the third baseman stepped home and scored additional points. Ahn Jung-hwan, the seventh batter with two outs and a full base, hit a timely double to seal the wedge. 토토사이트

Jeon Mir, who played only as a batter, struck out, hit, sacrifice fly, walk, and intentional four pitches. He went 1-for-2 with a hit.

Kyungpook High School advanced to the semifinals by beating Cheongdam High School 7-3. Jeon Mir shared the joy of victory by sharing high fives with his friends.

Former Mir of Gyeongbuk High School, which has a batting average of 60 percent.

Kyungpook High School's Jeon Mir is struck out by Song Geun-yeop, a left-hander at Cheongdam High School, his first at-bat.

Jeon Mir confirms the pitch that was struck out by Kim Se-hoon, the first batter with good foresight.

Revenge with a second at-bat hit.

Kyungpook High School, which advanced to the semifinals by saving Mir before pitching, is challenging to win two consecutive tournaments