

The Art Assignment

Credits: Visual Art

Competencies: Convey Voice

Course Description: In this class, you will make a collection of artifacts based on given prompts, inspired by your life and imagination. The way you approach each your choice- from personal to political, silly, or serious. You can use any materials you like to make your artwork, from iMovie and digital collage apps, to fabric, cardboard and paint. If you don't like a prompt, you can swap it out or create your own! After each assignment is complete, you will reflect on your process, and defend why your artifact is art.
