

Sam

Age: 20

Mido's Manager/Rigger

Mido's Childhood Best Friend

Sam is Mido's childhood friend, business partner, and rigger whenever the opportunity arrives.

Growing up with brothers and mostly male friends from a young age, Sam would usually gravitate to more boyish hobbies and activities, while still keeping some feminine traits to stay true to herself.

Sam learned most of her proficient knot work with her time in the scouts as a kid. Later in life, she would use that same knowledge to try out the engaging art of shibari, a fascination she would discover that she has had since her teenage years. Dreaming of having the opportunity to find a partner to use these notable sets of skills on.

Mido and Sam first met in junior high school. Since then, they've been best friends ever since they first exchanged words with one another. The bond they had grew much larger when both of them had a closed door confession to each other involving their intense desire for bondage. Their relationship quickly became a match made in heaven.

Right before attending their graduation from high school, Mido asked Sam if she would help her with her dream of becoming an internet celebrity. After discussing all the plans, just minutes before graduating, Sam accepted the offer to help Mido by fulfilling her manager role.