

Hi, Gilberto!

After I read Cris E. review on yelp saying you and your team were the best team and environment I decided to check your website.

I can't help it so I have to tell you this:

If you would attract attention with a headline and relate to readers with an introduction, then your conversion rate would rise!

You know, Mayweather's gym uses a strategy for their website that I like to call "Siren's Song".

It takes advantage of the pains and desires of readers to show them that you are different and your service is MADE for them!

Mayweather might be a big brand, but why should YOU fall short in online marketing, right?

So I customized Siren's Song to your Website in a Google Doc.

Simple copy and paste and within 1-2 minutes you can put it to work.

Is this something you are interested in? If it is, I will send it right after your reply!

PS: I'm already talking with Prevail Boxing about using this strategy on their own website but we haven't agreed on anything solid yet so...first come, first served!
