Subject: Helping you stay ahead of the competition

Dear (client 1),

I hope this email finds you well and in good health.

My name is EL MAHDI BENRAMI and I am a copywriter.

I came across your video on YouTube and was impressed by your business and your website. I think your training program is well-designed and has the potential to attract more customers. However, I believe there may be ways to further improve your business strategies and increase your benefits.

As a strategic partner, I would like to offer my assistance to help you achieve your goals and stay ahead of the competition.

If you're interested, I would be happy to set up a complimentary Zoom call to discuss your business in more detail. During the call, we can talk about your goals and how I can help you achieve them.

Thank you so much, I wish I will hear from you soon.

Best regards,
EL MAHDI BENRAMI

Subject: Outrun your competitors...

Dear (client 1) I wish this email finds you well.

I EL MAHDI BENRAMI I am an copywriter, i would like to be your strategic partner and help you increase your business strategies and also benefit.

I Just finish watching your video in youtube and i can't express how much amazing it was, I also checked your website which is perfectly designed, the website colors attract the human eye, and well explained about your Training program.

I also notice that there may be something missing which is to bring in more customers and make the visitors purchase.

I would like to offer you a complimentary Zoom call so we can discuss more details About your business. During the call, we can talk about your business, your goals, and how I can help you achieve those goals.

I hope I will hear from you soon.

Best regards
