

MAPULA LODGE

OKAVANGO DELTA - (NG 12) MAPULA RESERVE

There's an area on the northern fringes of the famed Okavango Delta, an enormous, 220,000 acre concession that's a matrix of floodplains, woodlands and channels. Waterways snake across the landscape, spilling into glassy lagoons and encircling islands of stately palms and trumpeting elephant. It's an iconic Delta landscape, and a magical environment in which to enjoy the abundance of wildlife.

In the middle of it all, on a large tree island surrounded by seasonal floodplains, is the laid back Mapula Lodge. The camp overlooks a permanent lagoon complete with its own resident pod of hippos.
