Bachelor of Business Administration in Project Management - Minor in Biblical Business Principles
HBI University
Course Duration: 3 years
Credit Hours: 135 (including minor)

Program Description
The Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in Project Management at HBI University equips students with the skills to plan, execute, and manage projects across various industries. The program provides a solid foundation in business operations, financial management, and leadership while emphasizing project-based methodologies and problem-solving strategies.

Students will develop competencies in risk assessment, scheduling, quality control, and cost management, making them effective leaders in corporate and nonprofit settings. The curriculum integrates real-world case studies and hands-on project management tools, ensuring students are prepared to manage teams, meet deadlines, and drive business growth.

The Minor in Biblical Business Principles offers students a faith-based perspective on business ethics, leadership, and financial stewardship. It integrates biblical teachings into modern business practices, preparing graduates to lead with integrity in faith-driven organizations and entrepreneurial ventures. Courses cover topics such as biblical finance, ethical decision-making, and servant leadership.
