DAMON Beer/Coffee/Tea Chat Series

DAMON Beer/Coffee/Tea chat series is a regular DAMON community meetup series. It is for discussing any topics related to DAMON and the community in informal ways. To encourage informal discussions, we don't record or share notes from the discussion without need. To join, an informal reservation is required.

When: Monday and Wednesday, Bi-weekly

Time slots for chat series are reserved for every two weeks, on Monday 18:00-18:30 Pacific Time (PT) and Wednesday 09:30-10:00 PT. Note that the time slots are reserved in advance only to make registrations easy. Anyone can request additional time slots if needed for any reason.

Google Calendar

For convenient management and alarming of the schedule on different time zones, we have a public Google Calendar for this chat series. Please feel free to import this on your calendar.

Upcoming Schedules

Below are the time slots that you could reserve. Please reach out to sj@kernel.org to reserve one for you, at least 24 hours before the time slot.

- 2025-09-29 (Mon) 18:00 PT (not yet reserved)
- 2025-10-01 (Wed) 09:30 PT (not yet reserved)
- 2025-10-13 (Mon) 18:00 PT (not yet reserved)

- 2025-10-27 (Mon) 18:00 PT (not yet reserved)
- 2025-10-29 (Wed) 09:30 PT (not yet reserved)

How: Inform Your Interest 24 Hours Before The Time Slot

To join the chat, you should make a reservation at least 24 hours before the time slot. The reservation is informal. Send a simple e-mail saying you want to chat, to sj@kernel.org. DAMON maintainers will then further discuss with you when and where to meet (usually Google Meet).

Where: Usually Virtual, Sometimes In Person

For the place, Google Meet is usually used. DAMON maintainers will discuss with reservers about the place. Based on demands, in-person versions could happen.
