

My favorite anime

Here is a list of some of my favorite anime (in no particular order).

A Centaur's Life - genre; Slice of life. As the name suggests; A Centaur's Life follows the daily life of a centaur and her life at school.

Black Cat- genre; Adventure. No, this one isn't about a black cat, but more about a trained killer. Train Heartnet(one of the main characters) quits an organization he was built for, seeking more thrill than he once had.

Miss Kobayashi's Dragon Maid- genre; fantasy, comedy. Stumbling upon a wounded dragon in the forest, Kobayashi(in a drunken state) invites this dragon to become her maid girl. Now the rest is history.

Charlotte- genre; comedy-drama, occult fiction. When children hit puberty, they manifest supernatural-like power. But, can one teenager save a whole subrace of humans or is it a lost cause?

Death Parade- genre; psychological thriller. An afterlife Bar hosts games between the now deceased to determine whether they get reincarnated or are gone forever. Maybe, even lessons are learned.

Ouran HighSchool Host Club- genre; harem, romantic comedy. When Haruhi first comes to Ouran High School, she just wanted a quiet place to work when she stumbles into the Host Club. She is forced to pay off a debt larger and maybe even more valuable than her life.

Kiss Him Not Me- harem, romantic comedy. It follows the main female protagonist, who once was a plus-sized girl. Seeing that her boyfriend is getting along well, she gets herself into shape. The downside -- most of her boyfriends give off mild attraction towards her.
