

English Literature A level Preparatory work (MUST COMPLETE)

1: You MUST read The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini before you start the course.

You will need a copy as the majority of your notes will be annotations within the book and it is useful if we all have the same version.

The copy you should buy is the following:

ISBN: 978-1-4088-2485-6

Published by Bloomsbury Publishing

Available here:

Please make sure you purchase this edition if you can. You can find many copies for pennies on Amazon Used but these can take weeks and weeks to arrive. I would also avoid buying, or borrowing, as pre- annotated version as the annotations will probably not make sense and the teaching does change year on year.

If you are eligible for pupil premium, we can arrange a book for you but not until the beginning of the year and there won't be time to read it before the lessons start. If that is the case, there is an online version available here if you should need it:

It is imperative that you read the book before starting the course and we will begin by completing a multiple choice test that covers the plot of the story.

2: Also, you must have the following book when you start the course:

https://www.amazon.co.uk/s?k=9781107615595&crid=CNES7XI76WMC&srefix=9781107615595%2Caps%2C199&ref=nb_sb_noss

Again, it is imperative that you have this copy as it contains notes that will be used in class teaching.

You DO NOT have to read this beforehand as you will be watching a specific production in class to support your understanding of the storyline.

Again, if you are eligible for pupil premium, we can arrange a copy for you once you are on the course.
