I'd rather eat worms than give a speech!	I prefer research type speeches over ones I make up.	I prefer serious rather than comical topics.	I prefer speaking over any kind of writing assignment.
I'd rather give a speech to make people cry than make people laugh.	I have beliefs that I can effectively & respectfully communicate.	I prefer listening to others' views rather than share my own.	I like to logically argue about all kinds of ideas.
I talk fast.	I talk with my hands.	I can't stand making slideshows as visual aids.	I'm artistic.
Technology drives me bonkers; give me paper/pencil stuff.	When a big news event happens, I plan what I'd say if a microphone was put in front of me.	I have played or sung a solo to an audience of 50 or more.	I can strike up a conversation with anyone.
I don't see why anyone would want a career in public speaking.	I have a set of questions I ask people the first time I meet them.	I enjoy small talk.	I'd think I'd enjoy being a news anchor, reporter, or youtuber.

let's learn to be effective communicators & improve our public speaking
