

BE LOUD STUDIOS RELEASE AND LICENSE AGREEMENT

Be Loud Studios is a nonprofit organization dedicated to amplifying the voice of students from pre-kindergarten through high school with radio and digital media projects. Our services are structured around our belief that all students have the ability and potential to create engaging media that is a meaningful reflection of their story and creativity. In order to promote Be Loud's mission and its students' achievements, Be Loud wishes to use students' work and students' images and likeness to that end.

This Agreement grants Be Loud Studios the right to edit, including editing during the post-production process, and publish any student work created in our summer camp, afterschool programming, and/or community partnerships. Additionally, this Agreement allows Be Loud Studios to use photographs, videos, and recordings of the student and/or of the student's work on Be Loud Studios' websites and/or other social and online media affiliated with Be Loud Studios. All the rights and ownership to the work remain in the possession of Be Loud Studios. However, the student retains all rights to use, publish, and/or share his or her own work in publications and media unaffiliated with Be Loud Studios.

By signing this Agreement, you do hereby release Be Loud Studios, its employees, and all representatives from any liabilities, known and unknown, arising out of the use of the aforementioned media content.

Although participation in any project with Be Loud Studios is completely voluntary, once consent to publish the work is provided to Be Loud Studios by signing this Agreement, this consent cannot be withdrawn without written and/or emailed notification provided to Be Loud Studios. Also, Be Loud Studios is a nonprofit organization and will not, nor be able to, provide monetary compensation for the use of the students' work. Finally, Be Loud Studios reserves the right to not publish and/or produce any student work.
