

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: August 15, 2025

This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect when you use our website, Rock-Paper-Scissors.game. Your privacy is important to us, and we are committed to being transparent about our data practices.

1. What Information We Collect

We have designed our website to minimize data collection. When you interact with our smart contract, the only information we see is your wallet address. We do not collect any personal information such as your name, email address, or location.

2. We Do Not Use Cookies

We do not use cookies or any other tracking technologies to collect information about your browsing activity.

3. How We Use the Information We Collect

The only information we see is your wallet address, which is visible on the public blockchain. We do not use this information for any purpose beyond facilitating your interactions with the game's smart contract.

4. Data Security

Since we do not collect personal data, there is no personal data to secure. The smart contract you interact with is hosted on the public blockchain, which is inherently designed to be secure and immutable.

5. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new policy on this page. We encourage you to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes.
