Dear GLAMers,

This page is for us to discuss ideas about the Wikimania 2016 (Esino Lario) GLAM track, what we would like to learn and teach others, in all aspects that are not presentations.
Please feel free to edit this page and pass on the link to your contacts so we can have the best GLAM track we can.

Cheers,
Shani.

Salman (Sal) Khan - ~~~~
(Not to belabor the point, but the location of Wikimania 2016 will severely affect what kind of speakers we can get to come.) Some suggestions. -- User:Fuzheado
New Smithsonian secretary
Brewster Kahle (speaker in 2006)
Yochai Benkler - Harvard University Berkman Center (he was already a speaker in Haifa…-- Beat Estermann)
Luciano Floridi - Oxford Internet Institute
Dr. Victoria Nash - Oxford Internet Institute
Antje Schmidt, Museum für Kunst und Gewerbe Hamburg, Projekt Digitale Inventarisierung -- Barbara Fischer

==Discussion suggestions==

Please add discussion topics that you believe are important for the community to discuss.
What: discussions with an objective.
Target: advanced and beginners.
Where: Primary School.
Objectives: taking a decision, browsing possible solutions for a problem, making latent problems and issues emerging, considering a topic from different perspectives. Length: 30 minutes.

What kind of technical developments and tools do we urgently need as GLAM community? How can we communicate these best and push to make these happen?
What kind of dashboard can be developed for GLAM ... key indicators to track where content from a museum, archive or library collection is used? (articles, views / hits)

What is the status of a facility like "campaigns" to allow for a small subset of collaborators to track activity? - User:Fuzheado
What additional functionalities/tools could help attract more new users to interact with GLAM content on Wikimedia Commons? (complement metadata, re-use it on Wikipedia, etc.) -- Beat Estermann
What are the "main drivers" and "major show stoppers" at various levels of advancement of GLAM outreach in different countries? -- Beat Estermann
How to support science institutions - zoos, scientific societies, etc.
Creating sustainable Wikipedian in Residence Positions - time and funding
How are GLAM staff presently engaging on Wikipedia/Wikimedia/Wikidata as part of their job? What are the challenges and mutual expectations in the short run / in the long run? (this would particularly make sense if some of the GLAM staff presently engaging on Wiki as part of their job were attending Wikimania) -- Beat Estermann

==Training suggestions==
Please add training topics that you believe can benefit community members.
What: meant to enhance skills.
Target: advanced and beginners.

How to do data imports in Wikidata. From using OpenRefine to clean the data to the actual import itself. -- User:Spinster
Using the Education Dashboard to track event results
Categorizing museum images on Commons
Using a toolkit of formats and methods to provide information and training on openness and licensing to institutions -- Barbara Fischer, Lilli Iliev

==Posters suggestions==
Please let us know if you would like to present a poster about your project in the community village. Describe the project and the poster.
What: provides an overview of what is going on in the movement in different countries and locations.
Target: everyone.
Where: Former Museum/collaborative space.
Posters will be presented in the community village, with brochures & help desks and will be managed by WMDE since they are in charge of the community village.

Happy to contribute the Wikipedia Space posters here for newbies, but I'm not sure how many newbies there will be in such a remote village. -- User:Fuzheado

# Poster on Medicine and GLAM showcasing the ongoing GLAM projects related to medicine
# Poster about the Flemish Museums on Wikidata project -- User:Spinster

==Lightning talks suggestions==
Please let us know if there is any topic you would like to give a lightning talk about.
