

Instruction: Circle T if the statement is correct, F if it is wrong!

No	Statement	T-F
1.	The concern of portfolio is the final product, not on the planning or the process.	T-F
2.	Portfolio assessment based on teacher and serves both as formative and summative.	T-F
3.	Portfolio collections are intended to gather some student work from different lessons is a set of evidence that can be seen or touched (tangible) and the abstract (intangible).	T-F
4.	Portfolio assessment is multisource, which allows evaluating various source of information.	T-F
5.	Portfolio assessment has multi-purposes, namely enabling the assessment effectiveness program for assessing students' abilities.	T-F
6.	Standardized tests are more valid and reliable than portfolio assessment.	T-F
7.	Assessment of curricular portfolio has more validity than standardized tests because the procedure cannot be changed at all.	T-F
8.	Selection of the final work that will be incorporated into the portfolio given the responsibility of teachers and students.	T-F
9.	Portfolio assessment does not require a conference between teachers and students to discuss their respective portfolios.	T-F
10.	Portfolio assessment does not require the information obtained from the conventional assessment e.g. formative and summative test results.	T-F

Key Answers

- | | |
|------|------|
| 1. F | 6. T |
| 2. T | 7. F |
| 3. T | 8. T |
| 4. F | 9. F |
| 5. T | 10.F |

Instruction: Complete the sentence and choose the best answer.

1. Complete test suitable for testing vocabulary and grammar, but less suited to test _____
2. In addition to multiple choice tests, other tests are likely to guess bigger is _____
3. Put a checklist for test technique which aims to test the skills of speaking?
 - (a) dictation
 - (b) set dialog text
 - (c) read a story in a loud
 - (d) to tell a story back
 - (e) running a simple command
4. Which of the following focused tests that cannot be tested using a formal approach?
 - (a) listening to a narrative
 - (b) identify the sound and meaning of the word
 - (c) preparing a series of words into sentences
 - (d) identify the routes on a map,
 - (e) listening to a description or story
 - (f) listen and make simple notes based on information received
5. Make a close test based on text below by eliminating three of the 6 past verb forms.

So she pulled down the covers and climbed into Papa Bears Great Big Bed. But she quickly jumped down. "That bed is MUCH too hard!" she said. Then she tried Mamma Bears Medium size bed. But it was too soft.