Media Information (Optional):

Performances are optional. They can be done solo or in a group. We also accept media submissions of performances, especially if you want to share a performance or other media that is not your own.

Some examples of media/performances include (but aren't limited to):

- A demonstration of a traditional activity
- A performance (music, dance, poem, etc.)
- Speaking a different language
- A film or show to play during performances

Are you performing or submitting media? If so, please indicate which one(

Workshops

Hosting a workshop is optional but highly recommended. It is an opportunity to showcase or share a step-by-step guide to something significant. Examples of workshop ideas include (but aren't limited to):

- A recipe or virtual cooking tutorial
- A dance tutorial
- Crafts
- Guest speaker
- An important event (ex: special ceremony)

If you are doing a workshop, who will be running it?
What will you be demonstrating?

Food

Throughout the day, you can give out small samples of food (packaged or unpackaged is fine). Some convenient foods include snacks and candies, but small samples of dishes are welcome too.

Then in the evening portion, we hold a buffet in the cafeteria. We encourage you to bring a cultural dish or get us in touch with a restaurant who can provide cultural dishes. Candies, snacks, drinks, and desserts are also welcome at the buffet. For any food that is brought in, we need to know of any allergens they contain (especially nuts).

If you are bringing food for the in-school portion , what food will you bring?
