INTRODUCTION (Book Antiqua Linotype 11, Space 1.5, Justify)

The introduction is a background problem that describes academic anxiety, the irrelevant between ideality and reality, theoretical and applicable. In the background of the problem, the author must explain the latest research relevant to the topic to be discussed along with references. Then, in this sub, the author can define the position and significance of the writing to be addressed with research that is still relevant before. Furthermore, the writer can explain the purpose of the research and the significance of the study theoretically and pragmatically.

METHOD (Book Antiqua Linotype 11, Space 1.5, Justify)

It should be written in paragraphs. It explains the approach of the research, the kinds of research, the data collection technique, and data analysis. They should reflect on and describe the purpose of the study appropriately. In the next paragraph, the author must display the research framework in a concept map or diagram.

FINDINGS AND DISCUSSION (Book Antiqua Linotype 11, Space 1.5, Justify)

Findings

Inform a number of important data (original) fields which obtained from the questionnaires, surveys, documents, interviews, observations, and other data collection techniques. It can be completed with a table or graphic to clarify the result.

All figures and tables should be centered and numbered consecutively. Tables (refer to Table 1, Table 2, and table 3…) should be presented above the table contained in center alignment. A descriptive title should be placed after the table title (refer to Table 1, table 2, and table 3…) above each table. The source of the table should be placed below the table in the right alignment. Example:

Table 1. Table Description

No	Description	Description	Description
2	-	-	-
3	-	-	-
5	-	-	-
6	-	-	-
7	-	-	-

Source: source description

Figures (refer to Figure 1, Figure 2, and Figure 3…) should be presented below each figure and followed by the description of the figure. Example:

Discussion

Discussion is the most important part of writing a journal article. At this stage, the author must present the thesis and research findings systematically, scientifically, and factually. Explain the impact of research findings and their impact. Then the writer must compare the results with previous studies relevant to the topic of discussion.

CONCLUSION (Book Antiqua Linotype 11, Space 1.5, Justify)

This summarizes the evidence of the main points or findings of research problems that are by the research objectives. It consists of two paragraphs (maximum).

Please do not restate findings and discussions. Provide a meeting of the overall scope of the article and a concluding remark
