A large, colorful board game titled "CANDY LAND" is spread out on a table. The board is shaped like a winding path through a whimsical candy-themed landscape. Various landmarks are labeled, including "Candy Castle", "Almost There!", "Gumball Mountains", "Peppermint Forest", and "Candy Falls". The path is made of colorful, candy-shaped tiles. Several game pieces, including a red one with a face and a yellow one, are visible on the board. A stack of cards is also present. The board is surrounded by various candy-themed decorations, including lollipops, candy canes, and candy houses. The overall theme is sweet and playful.
