A doc by Secret Gaygent 69

People make a lot of hubbub about the plethora of kindle porn titles. But there's more to the kindle and amazon book store than just pornography. So, I made this doc to give people insight into the other kinds of books for sale on amazon.

Sci-fi and Fantasy

Tulpa Uprising \(Tulpa Trilogy Book 1\)

18-year-old Megan was the first to see the gilded job offer come down from the sky.

It meant a once in a lifetime chance at financial security and not having to jog all over the vertical city's slums all day every day just to eat and stay out of jail. She ran like the wind to catch the offer – risking the danger of working for an Olympian.

Now she's told she will be leading a guerrilla army to reclaim Earth from its Martian overlords. The Olympians have long had an unbreakable hold over Earth, with billions of riot control drones and mental maps of much of the population that allow for predictive policing.

It's an impossible job – and she hasn't even been paid yet.

Turns out the rebellion does have a couple of tricks up their sleeve: surprise, and a drone-scrambling technology called Tulpas. Megan's new military-grade Intuitive Neural Interface allows her to bond with Kitsune, a refurbished experimental fighting vehicle made for yesterday's wars. But will even their determination and unconventional machinery be enough for her tiny team to make a dent in Olympian control?

3 humans and 3 fighting mecha - against all of Mars's military might.

Fans of Firefly, Pacific Rim, and other stories of a small band of friends in a last ditch effort against overwhelming military force will find this a heart-stopping new story to get lost in.

Red Harvest: Star Wars Legends \(Star Wars - Legends\)

The era of the Old Republic is a dark and dangerous time, as Jedi Knights valiantly battle the Sith Lords and their ruthless armies. But the Sith have disturbing plans—and none more so than the fulfillment of Darth Scabrous's fanatical dream, which is about to become nightmarish reality.

Unlike those other Jedi sidelined to the Agricultural Corps—young Jedi whose abilities have not proved up to snuff—Hestizo Trace possesses one extraordinary Force talent: a gift with plants. Suddenly her quiet existence among greenhouse and garden specimens is violently destroyed by the arrival of an emissary from Darth Scabrous. For the rare black orchid that she has nurtured and bonded with is the final ingredient in an ancient Sith formula that promises to grant Darth Scabrous his greatest desire.

But at the heart of the formula is a never-before-seen virus that's worse than fatal—it doesn't just kill, it transforms. Now the rotting, ravenous dead are rising, driven by a bloodthirsty hunger for all things living—and commanded by a Sith Master with an insatiable lust for power and the ultimate prize: immortality . . . no matter the cost.

Features a bonus section following the novel that includes a primer on the Star Wars expanded universe, and over half a dozen excerpts from some of the most popular Star Wars books of the last thirty years!

"Teenage Sith zombies"? ...Really Bad.

Reviewed in the United States on September 3, 2017

This is the first Star Wars novel that I haven't liked. Super lame stereotypical zombie story. You get the feeling that the author just slapped "Star Wars" on his zombie to sell the book. The story line has plenty of unexplained elements, and doesn't fit at all into the Star Wars "universe". The writing style itself is alright, but the story is absolute garbage. Authors often are given some leeway to explain some things essentially as 'the force did it', but this is really a stretch. He actually says that "The Sickness" creating the "teenage Sith zombies" is something separate from the Force, but with powers similar to the Force.

A lot of reviews didn't like this book too much because it didn't stay true to your typical star wars type story. I think just the opposite.

I thought it was a fun read. I love zombies, I love any good sith story, what else do you need?

Also, I really enjoyed reading about Hestizo's special ability - force sensitivity to plants. It was different and interesting to experiment a different side of the force.

Note: I read as many star wars novels as I can get my hands on. It takes a lot for me to say "that book sucked." It's definitely not the best book out there (try Darth Bane or KOTOR series) but it was a good read and Schreiber is a great author!

ANTIGUA: The Land of Fairies, Wizards and Heroes

New Fantasy Book Available!

The inhabitants of the Land of Antigua had been tormented and threatened by the Evil Sorceress Gwendeviere and the Great Dragon Vorltrarr for as long as they could remember! The Sorceress Gwendeviere vowed that if the the three kings and the inhabitants of the easternmost, westernmost and southernmost provinces didn't bow down and serve under her rule, she would destroy them all! The three kings vowed that none of the inhabitants of their kingdoms which included gnomes, wizards, centaurs and knights, would ever bow down and serve the sorceress! They vowed that their army of knights and archers right along with all the other inhabitants of the Land of Antigua would fight the Sorceress Gwendeviere, the Dragon Vorltrarr and the sorceress' army of goblins, trolls and black panthers until the end! Their only hope was a prophecy that stated that a child from the other side of the Waters of Antigua would cross over into their world and lead them in battle!

Excerpt:

The Dragon Vorltrarr let out such a loud roar that everyone in the easternmost, westernmost and southernmost kingdoms of the Land of Antigua heard him! Then the gigantic monster spit out fire right from his nostrils and then his mouth! The creature flew through the skies like a rocket! The creature had only one thing on its mind. It wanted to destroy the entire village! The Sorceress Gwendeviere wanted to send a message to all the creatures and inhabitants in the Land of Antigua. The sorceress wanted them all to know that she was taking control of the entire Land of Antigua! She wanted everyone to know that King Thomasson, King Arlexjandrio and King Aurthorr would no longer be rulers of the land! She wanted everyone to know that if they didn't bow down and serve her, each and every one of them would be destroyed! As the villagers heard and saw Vorltrarr approaching, they screamed and cried out! They were all terrified! Vorltrarr had never flown this far south before! The mighty creature stopped right over the village and spread his wings out wide. He hovered in the air over the village with his mighty wings spread out. Vorltrarr lifted his head up and then spit out gigantic balls of fire at the villager's stores, taverns and barns. The Dragon Vorltrarr spit out a steady stream of fire and burned down the entire village! The heat from the fire was intense! There was smoke everywhere! The smell from burnt wood and ash was in the air! Every business and cottage in the village was destroyed! There was nothing left! When Vorltrarr was done burning the village, he let out a loud scream and then flew back to the northernmost province of the Land of Antigua! The Dragon Vorltrarr flew back to the castle of the Sorceress Gwendeviere. Vorltrarr landed on top of the castle and let out a loud scream. The very foundation of the castle shook from the power of the mighty creature! The Sorceress Gwendeviere's eyes grew wide and then they turned red as fire! She smiled wickedly at Vorltrarr's safe return! The villagers were extremely upset and heartbroken when they saw that their village had been charred and burnt down to the ground by the gigantic monster. Everything that the villagers had worked for and all their worldly possessions were gone in an instant! They had nothing left! The villagers couldn't believe what they were seeing. They couldn't believe that the Sorceress Gwendeviere could be so heartless and treacherous! She had destroyed everything! There was absolutely nothing left! The villagers had lost everything that meant anything to them. Their homes and their lives were gone! There was nothing left to rebuild and besides none of the people felt safe there anymore.

I have read many novels over the years, in multiple forms, and I got to say that this author had made me laugh the most out of any book I had ever read. On the other hand, the book even has some nice parental messages that glues the story well along with its other elements.

The smoothness of the dialogue makes you feel as if the characters are alive. Somehow there is never a "boring" moment in the book, enough that someone like me who is too lazy to finish a book in a single day had actually finished this one very rapidly. (In fact, I was surprised that the book ended so quickly).

Now I am sure many of you are worried about this "mom" figure on the story and whether her relationship with her son would reach that taboo threshold or not. But do not worry, it won't go that far, the author had also stated that he would not do so.

Final words, the idea of this story is definitely something that is quite fresh and fun that I highly suggest that you give it a shot.

Reading this really reminds me of memories with my own mom. She passed a few years ago and I miss when we used to pal around and hang out together. She was DEFINITELY not Mamako but she was mine and I love her dearly.

I'm in for volume 2 and the anime!!

That being said, a LITTLE scale back of the incestuous scenarios would be welcome.

A highly inaccurate vision. A grumpy writer. And a corpse. Welcome to Starry Falls. Running from the mob can be murder.

Each book in the series can be read individually so dive on in!

Confession. I'm no psychic. But I can sort of see the future—albeit not accurately. And you better believe, I've never let that little detail stop me from prognosticating my way into a pickle. So when I ticked off the mob, the feds, and my wily ex, I decided to take my Uncle Vinnie's advice and start over with a new name and new hair color while relying on my old shtick—getting my visionary wires crossed and putting myself in danger.

It's Christmastime in Starry Falls, the annual tree lighting ceremony is underway and the entire town has gathered on Main Street to witness the illuminated spectacle. But when I spot a body tangled in lights, the night takes an unexpected homicidal turn. Not only did my visions let me down in that department, but I didn't see two wise guys coming our way either. Things with the mob are starting to get a little too close for comfort, and a part of me wonders if I'll be able to stick around in this cute little town to see the new year. The snow is falling, the Italian cookies are baking, and it's beginning to look a lot like murder.

It's beginning to look a lot like murder. The snow is falling and so are the accusations. The mob is growing far more brazen, the people from my past refuse to stay there, and Shep is on the verge of learning every last bit about me. My life—and all of Starry Falls may never be the same.

The Forensic Certified Public Accountant and the Christmas Donor \(The Forensic Certified Public Accountant and ... Book 4\)

by Dwight David Thrash CPA FCPA CGMA (Author)

The magical world of Forensic Accounting comes to life as Titus Uno Certified Public Accountant, Forensic Certified Public Accountant, and Chartered Global Management Accountant as he uses his accounting background to help Santa Claus during the Christmas Season.

Excerpt:

Chapter 1 the Christmas Donor's Trust Fund

Let us begin by saying that a nice person called perhaps Santa Claus was left money from an infinite balance trust fund. This trust fund is infinite because no matter how much money is spent the account does not go down, even one cent. There is only one condition. That condition is that every cent that is spent must be used for the purpose of doing nice things for anyone that needs help. Of course, "It would be nice if you would give me all of your items." or "It would be nice if I can live rent-free in this apartment." or anything that would constitute "greed" would not be good for this "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account."

Santa Claus has to be very careful in whom Santa Claus trusts because the magic of the infinite balance trust fund also called the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account" depends on it, or else the magic will disappear. If a naughty or not nice person used this account for an evil or a mean purpose, this would freeze the account. No pun intended. This account needs to remain unfrozen so that good things can continue to be operational for Santa Claus.

I, Titus Uno, Certified Public Accountant, Forensic Certified Public Accountant, and Chartered Global Management Accountant, will always remember the day that Santa Claus appeared to me and told me that I had been selected to be the Treasurer of the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account." It had come to his attention that I was supposed to be Treasurer of several other organizations, but that other people had lied and cheated to become the Treasurer instead of me, Titus Uno, Certified Public Accountant, Forensic Certified Public Accountant, and Chartered Global Management Accountant, becoming those organizations' Treasurer. This was pretty much a done deal in becoming the Treasurer of the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account", because who in their correct mind would turn down Santa Claus.

So that is how I, Titus Uno, Certified Public Accountant, Forensic Certified Public Accountant, and Chartered Global Management Accountant, became this organization's Treasurer. Of course the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account" has expenditures that I have never seen on other financial statements other than the ones on the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account" financial statements. These are unique and special accounts and sub-accounts that are in the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account."

Now, we will get into the special accounting of this "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account." These expenditures include monies that will be spent for the following out of the "Santa Claus Trust Fund Account Number 1225" which has 22 Sub-Accounts: the Santa Claus Convention Sub-Account Number 1225.01, the Christmas Spirit Sub-Account Number 1225.02, the Christmas Secret Santa Clauses Sub-Account Number 1225.03, the Christmas Santa Letters Sub-Account Number 1225.04, the Santa Claus Bell Ringers for the Salvation Army Sub-Account Number 1225.05, the Christmas

The Christian Detective: A Project Proving the Christian Truth

“The Christian Detective” was the codename given to a group of retired English detectives in the mid-1930s that wanted to see if they could put forward a convincing case for how Jesus Christ – a man – could also plausibly be God. They sought to forensically investigate all of the circumstances of the Christian story using their extensive detective skills and experience and put Christianity on a sound footing that would pass muster in a court of law and meet the standard of proof of being true at least on the “balance of probabilities” if not “beyond reasonable doubt”. The outbreak of WWII brought the project to a premature end, and it became one of history’s many forgotten stories.

In 2015, a number of practicing detectives across the world, keeping in touch via the internet, adopted the name and retained the same objective: to prove the truth of their Christian faith.

As Sherlock Holmes said, “Once you eliminate the impossible, whatever remains, no matter how improbable, must be the truth.” Jesus is the “impossible” truth, regardless of how much it offends atheists.

The Third Testament: The True Christian Revelation \(The Christian Detective Book 2\)

Christianity is a detective story, a whodunnit, a whydunnit. Christianity’s Final Revelation is not yet written. The Old and New Testaments, based on God the Father and God the Son, were the first two stages, but Christianity is a trinitarian religion. Therefore, there must be a third stage.

The culmination of Christianity is the Third testament of the Holy Spirit. It will not be written in scripture, it will be written in us. The divine shall be directly, physically encoded in us. We shall become living vessels of the final Revelation, united with the Godhead through the mediation of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was the prototype of what everyone shall become at the Second Coming: man-and-God in one person; two natures – human and divine – united.

Follow the detective trail. Become a true Christian. The Final Testament of Christianity is the most glorious chapter in the Christian story, where the community of saints is transformed into none other than the Community of Gods.

The Kingdom is not about God coming to the world, it is about the world becoming a home for Gods, for humans made divine through the direct intercession of the Holy Spirit.

Joachim of Fiori, the great 12th century Italian mystic, was the first prophet of the Third Testament. Dante, the medieval poet, became its great artist. With his trinity of books – Inferno, Purgatorio and Paradiso – he described his epic journey through the afterlife. Dante lauded Joachim for being gifted with sacred prophecy.

In the 20th century, the visionary thinker Pierre Teilhard de Chardin – famous for his concept of the Noosphere converging on the numinous Omega Point – presented an inspirational Third Testament cosmology. Carl Jung provided the psychology of the Third Testament, while Julian Jaynes, with his bicameral (two-chambered brain) hypothesis, supplied the necessary physiology.

The science-fiction writer Philip K. Dick was enchanted by Joachim, Dante, Teilhard, Jung and Jaynes. With his astounding concept of the ditheon – the twin God – Dick became the modern champion of the Third Testament and a standard bearer of Gnostic Christianity, the Christianity of knowledge rather than faith, of Logos rather than Mythos.

The world is full of false Christians, believing in a false Christ. When they worship God, they do so as abject slaves rather than as bold seekers aiming to become Gods through the agency of the Holy Spirit. They reflect a slave morality rather than an exuberant morality of health, strength and ultimate aspiration.

True Christianity has always been esoteric and known only to a few. Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is within you.” Most Christians have no clue what this means.

Don't you want to be an authentic Christian, carrying out the true Gospel, that of the Third and Final Testament? Being a phony Christian, a pseudo-Christian, an ersatz Christian, will not save you. Being the wrong type of Christian will damn you.

Join the Christian Detectives in discovering the true, mind-boggling nature of the genuine Christian revelation, which is about transforming the human race into a divine species via the operations of the Holy Spirit on the right brain hemisphere of humans at the wondrous collective epiphany anticipated as the Second Coming, the event that will change everything.

We came from the Godhead at Alpha, and we shall return to it at Omega.

An Unlikely Prophet: A Metaphysical Memoir by the Legendary Writer of Superman and Batman

A profound investigation into the shifting nature of identity and reality

- Looks at the ways thought is embodied and how it takes on a life of its own

- Shows how Superman, an archetype of popular culture, is a perfect example of the nonlocality of quantum physics

Writer Alvin Schwartz received a great deal of attention from fans when he began talking publicly about his seventeen-year stint writing Superman and Batman comics. One of the individuals who contacted him was no ordinary fan, but a seven-foot Buddhist monk named Thongden, a tulpa or individual who was thought into being by a Tibetan mystic. Thongden put Alvin Schwartz on the path without form, an amazing journey he took in the company of Hawaiian kahunas, quantum physicists, and superheroes. Superman, as it turns out, is also a tulpa, a being created by thought that takes on a life of its own and, in Mr. Schwartz's words, is an archetype expressing the sense of nonlocality that is always present in the back of our minds--that capacity to be everywhere instantly. Superman is one of the specific forms that embodies our reality when we're at our highest point, when we're truly impermeable, indestructible, totally concentrated, and living entirely in the now, a condition each of us actually attains from time to time.

Alvin Schwartz's story is a personal journey through a lifelong remembrance of synchrony, inspiration, accident, and magic. As it unfolds it puts into vivid clarity the saving grace that inhabits every moment of our lives. The author travels as a stranger in a strange land, whose greatest oddity is that this land is our own.

Multidimensional Consciousness And The New Earth: How To Master A Multidimensional Lifestyle

This book is a manual for those who feel the call to do something good for our beloved Planet Earth. Are you ready to open up to the new ways of doing the light work? Are you ready to shine your Starseed light? Are you the one who jumped into the mission of laying a beautiful ground for humanity in the time of Shift? Are you one of the helpers of the creation? Do you recall the memory of giving yourself a promise like this?

The author aims to revive your 'multidimensionality', your hidden natural ability by immersing you to the feel of the beyond by blending philosophy, spirituality, science and poetry. With practices and explanations, she empowers you to explore your journey and your abilities for yourself. The book takes you to an intelligent field, the Multidimensional Consciousness Field. It is a field of empowerment, growth and creativity.

The book introduces you to your eternal companion and way-shower, your 'source-self'. It shows you how you can connect, communicate and navigate in the invisible, holding your own energetic hands.

The real spiritual journey is a natural journey within if one is willing to activate his/her multidimensionality and embark on an expedition in the invisible. The book deconstructs the usual jargon of dark and light, good and evil and shows the reader how loving, safe, joyful, empowered, and resourceful it can be to step into the invisible. Seven practices in the book set the energy for meditation practices, help you experience the power of the intention statements. If you are in your authentic path, it is already known to you, and it is already familiar.

She takes you to a step-by-step journey within her system, and introduces "vertical evolution in consciousness" as the modern human's "ascension". Her method is free from spiritual and religious contexts, although very much in gratitude to the light beings and spiritual guides. As a result, spiritual becomes the most natural conscious act of modern humans who are on the verge of leaping to the higher consciousness. While collective expects humanity to move to 5th-dimensional perception, the book calls for the multidimensional ones to activate themselves and dream what is to come for all humanity beforehand, to lay the ground for all. This loving act of dreaming will make the 'Shift' less chaotic, more peaceful and compassionate.

"I do not exist; therefore, I am" is the motto of the conscious individuals. They can fully manifest themselves in the multidimensional consciousness field by stepping on the two main principles: "Everything is equal" and "Nothing exists". The conscious individuals complete what opens up, "...therefore I am".

Multidimensional Consciousness and The New Earth reminds us that we must dream what is to come for humanity and Earth. In the age of change and transformation, the real growth comes from the conscious self-expression of the dreamers, visionaries, leaders who can bridge the invisible and visible with their multi-layered abilities.

In the era where the change is happening in the consciousness, only those who can consciously act in the higher dimensional layers as multidimensional beings can translate the light into existence. To be able to do this, one needs to acknowledge the two main principles first: "Everything is equal." and "Nothing exists".

The New Earth's content will be created by the multidimensional collective who will be able to advance their abilities and vision to even further ahead of the next phase. We must keep in mind that the Earth is the place of free will and it will stay so. Only a human being who acts out of his/her non-existence can dream a planet forward. A group of multidimensional beings can do wonders!

Whoever is up for the journey; it is time to live up to that responsibility with gratitude, and shout at their 'source-self': "Count me in!"

"From the ashes of the humankind, a New Man is born
The New Man dreams a seed that seed dreams the New Earth"

Dodging Energy Vampires: An Empath's Guide to Evading Relationships That Drain You and Restoring Your Health and Power

Highly sensitive people—or empaths—see life through the eyes of compassion and caring. They were born that way. As a result, they carry a tremendous amount of inner light. But they're also the favored prey of "vampires" who feed off empaths' energy and disrupt their lives on every level—physical, emotional, and financial.

In Dodging Energy Vampires, Christiane Northrup, M.D., draws on the latest research in this exciting new field, along with stories from her global community and her own life, to explore the phenomenon of energy vampires and show us how we can spot them, dodge their tactics, and take back our own energy. You'll delve into the dynamics of vampire-empath relationships and discover how vampires use others' energy to fuel their own dysfunctional lives. Once you recognize the patterns of behavior that mark these relationships, you'll be empowered to identify the vampires in your life too.

In these pages, Dr. Northrup opens up a toolbox full of techniques you can use to leave these harmful relationships behind; heal from the darkness they've cast over your mind, body, and spirit; and let your own light shine. In the end, you may find yourself healthier, happier, wealthier, and more vibrant than you ever believed possible.

Excerpt:

The Problem

Nerds are a jumpy bunch we aren't good with at interacting with people. And women are a whole other problem for us. I spent my whole life talking to girls and thinking that if I just talked to them one day one would fall in love with me. I went my whole life into my 20s storing women up as friends. All of these women I would talk to them help them, solve their problems and Every Time I ended up in the friend zone. The Friend Zone is the problem. Women don't respect a man that doesn't take the leap, and we nerds tend to be that kind of man. What happens here is we don't have the self-esteem to push through the "Pain or Being Turned Down". The Fact is the smarter a person is, the more fear they usually build up. Intelligence forces you to understand consequences usually, and that's the Rub. How do you break passed all that fear and allow yourself to find the woman of your dreams? First of all with anything you have to have a WHY!!!!

Beat Your Way to the Top: Masturbation as a technique for business success Paperback

After interviewing nearly 300 successful business people, both men and women, Dr. Larkin reveals their secret characteristics of business success, and describes a series of seven exercises that you can follow to assess and develop these characteristics in yourself. Warning: mild adult content.

Excerpt:

Basic Instructions

To begin with, this is a book in which we are going to talk about masturbation. I will also be asking you to do some practical exercises that will involve masturbating.

Please be responsible and only read this book in the privacy of a place where masturbation is neither illegal nor offensive. Make sure you will not be disturbed. Have adequate supplies around to "take care of" any consequences of masturbating.

If you have issues around masturbation, if you think it's disgusting or sinful or if in any way you have moral objections to masturbating, please don't flame the book. I understand people have divergent opinions, but this book is ONLY for consenting adults that have no moral problems with masturbating in private. I am a therapist, so believe me, I have seen everything under the sun. I'm not going to recommend therapy to address your issues with masturbation. If you don't think it's a normal thing or if you can't bring yourself to climax, this is not the self-help book for you.

For the rest of you: this is very important. Don't skip ahead and don't "just read" this book. If you do not do the exercises as they are stated and in the order they are stated, you will not succeed (or at least, it won't be because of this technique!)

If by chance you are unable to achieve orgasm when you are invited to masturbate, DO NOT TURN THE PAGE. Just keep working on the section you are on, until you are able to achieve orgasm working from the thoughts on that page. Orgasms are a very important part of masturbation. Without that release, the mental exercises in this book will not be effective.

If you can't bring yourself to orgasm multiple times in one session then DO NOT READ ON. Stop after each exercise. Remember you are building focus and connecting the exercise with the rush of energy and the release that comes from having a focused orgasm. No peeking to the next exercise until your body is ready for more self-abuse.

This is a system and a series of real exercises. Following the instructions will make you a more successful person.

Please be responsible. Follow the directions. And have a great time.

Good luck with your upcoming success!

Exercise 1: Love yourself

You can't be a success in business or life if you don't first love your own ideas. That is a definite fact. But no one can love all of themselves all of the time. We all have flaws, faults, and parts of our lives that we just can't bear. Normally, people fixate on these things, and this causes inner tension, which often results in short tempers, frustration, and can sometimes even lead to addictions (caffeine, exercise, alcohol, stress, various drugs both prescription and non) as people try to self-medicate the tension away. In Eastern Philosophies this tension is generally defined as blockage of the chakras. In Western Philosophy, we call it stress and anxiety, and most Western therapy will focus on the idea of "letting go."

Orgasm is always a release. Release is both the opposite of blockage (Eastern Philosophy) and a "letting go" (Western Philosophy). We will use the physical release of orgasm to reinforce and validate the mental releases that each exercise will demand.

In this first exercise, you must think back to when you were a child and remember a specific moment at which someone who was NOT your mother or father or caregiver was proud of you. Perhaps a teacher in school complimented a report, or a choir or band director said you were musical, or a camp counselor said that your art was good.

Educating the Platypus \(Kontra's Menagerie Book 17\)

Enjoying a last hoo-rah before another tough year of college begins, Kai Sudderson and his friends vacation in Kansas. He takes advantage of the secluded pond system behind his rented cabin to go swimming...in his platypus form. Living with his aunt and uncle, Kai had never met anyone else with the ability to turn into an animal. That is, until he gets himself snared in a beaver trap and a penguin shifter rescues him. Unable to pass up the opportunity for not only knowledge but medical treatment, Kai accompanies his new friend home. There, he meets Dorian Yaris, who—despite being so much older and having such a serious disposition—calls to Kai like no other. When Dorian explains about mates, will Kai consider the bonding thing with someone so obviously different or will he deny everything and return to his former life?

Typhoid Mary, Poz McBeefy

by Steve Beeferman (Author)

There is a new pandemic in town, brand new virus, and this one is out to get everyone, but this time being gay and poz (HIV-positive) gives you an edge. Three brave poz are out to save the world, even if they have to infect every human on the planet.

Why Should I Read About Plagues? Your Life Could Depend On IT!

1. Typhoid Mary is supposed to have infected 51 cases of typhoid which caused 3 deaths. (Wikipedia – Mary Mallon).
2. Since the start of the epidemic, an estimated 78 million people have become infected with HIV and 35 million people have died of AIDS-related illnesses. In 2016, 1 million people died of AIDS-related illnesses (UNAIDS – 2017). And many of my friends were victims and died of AIDS-related illnesses.
3. Steve Beeferman has penned TYPHOID MARY, PozMcBeefy and you should read this book to become familiar with why and how a PANDEMIC starts and expands and can kill billions (with a B) of people!

First there was Typhoid Mary (Mary Mallon (1869-1938) who represented the first asymptomatic carrier of the Typhoid pathogen associated with typhoid fever. She is presumed to have infected 51 people, 3 of whom died. She was twice forcibly isolated by public health authorities and died after nearly three decades in isolation. (Wikipedia – Mary Mallon)

Second came the “Gay Plague” (Gay related immune deficiency – GRID) and was so named in the early 1980s when predominantly homosexuals were being treated for immune deficiency diseases. Victims manifested flu-like symptoms within a month of exposure (no known mechanism for transmission known at the time). People with a damaged immune system seemed to be susceptible to a rare cancer (Kaposi’s sarcoma) or a wasting condition among other diseases.

Enter Poz McBeefy, (HIV-Positive) and, hero of this book. He practices and celebrates unprotected sex with other men. Unprotected intercourse was thought to be one of the best transmitters of the AIDS virus. With a multitude of medications, McBeefy survives and lives to become the main character in this book. He is an epidemiologist who has little to no respect for NIH (National Institutes of Health) CDC (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention) and even victim-oriented ActUP! You will find why Poz McBeefy is so angry with all the government and even the AIDS generated oligarchy!

This book describes a third disease. VEGA. The first death was posted on YouTube where a macho boy's faggy dance ended by him dying on the sand! The video made the news and the next day six similar videos appeared. By mid-afternoon; it had reached five thousand dead in the US alone. On the third day, the pandemic spread fast world-wide. According to World Health Organization, only vegans and longtime vegetarians were initially succumbing which is how journalists came up with the name VEGA!

Not five days later government epidemiologists had to revise their prognosis! VEGA was one hundred percent deadly. VEGA targeted every human's brain and caused such profound hysteria that the victims exhausted themselves, ultimately dying of dehydration. VEGA was not deadly per se, its side effects were deadly.

What is causing VEGA and HOW can it be stopped! Answering this question is why Poz McBeefy was swamped by dead bodies. But he noticed that his gay neighbors in New York City, who were HIV positive (probably infected by him), was not getting VEGA. He, being a Ph.D. Epidemiologist, set about trying to discover the cause and how to stop VEGA!

Poz McBeefy could not conquer such a global pandemic. He needed help! He needed one of his former students, Dyke Janie, also an epidemiologist, specialized in microbiology and anthropology! Working together, they knew that they would need help finding out the cause and stopping VEGA! And Quickly! Masses of data were exchanged between scientists the world over to coordinate an attack on VEGA and to come up with cure or vaccine! The former Dean of the Sociology Department at la Sorbonne, Paris, entered the fray and decided to question the McBeefy/Dyke Jeanie's methodology. He could augment their research with his vast sociological resources regarding how society exists. The Dean was known as Le Grande Mademoiselle (famous drag queen who had withdrawn from the world to her castle high in the Alps)! Now there was three scientists working on a cure of VEGA!

The three maintained constant communication among themselves and all the other scientists left to study and stop the virus. However, such communication required power and, since many of the atomic reactors no longer had engineers or personnel to keep the power flowing, the possibility of a nuclear winter became a fact. The three analyzed the movement of radiation from those reactors and decided that the safest places in the world to survive would be deep in Australia; where Dyke Jeanie was a Professor. McBeefy found that high in Quebec was an area that would be last to suffer the nuclear winter and he collected all his survivors and moved them to Quebec. Finally, Le Grande Mademoiselle brought the survivors who were left in Europe to her castle high in the Alps!

The three would continue to study the VEGA plague in their respective conclaves, but life was not over for Poz McGeefy or Dyke Janie or Le Grande Mademoiselle. You will need to read the book to find out how the Earth was saved, IF indeed it was!
