So What The Fuck Is This?

Welcome to the PAW Patrol Creepypasta Wiki

(https://paw-patrol-creepypasta.fandom.com/wiki/PAW_Patrol_Creepypasta_Wiki:Rules)

The PAW Patrol Creepypasta Wiki is for fanfiction writers of the Nickelodeon series PAW Patrol, but with a dark side. This wiki is similar to the PAW Patrol Fanon Wiki, but the focus is entirely for "creepypastas" or generally scary stories related to the series.

The PAW Patrol Creepypasta Wiki: Making you hide in your pup-house (or doghouse?) since May 2, 2014.

Rules

1. You must be at least 13 years old to contribute here.
2. Please keep on the PAW Patrol topic; stories written here should have enough involvement with the series in order to stay.
3. Do not vandalize people's stories, profile pages, or any other part of this wiki. Doing so is grounds for a permanent block.
4. Criticism is allowed, but ensure you aren't bashing someone or purposely causing problems.
5. Do not spam in the comments (e.g. posting a comment that says "fries" or "efnreigrisnfgrensenswewf94584xxxxx"). Comments like these are complete waste of time and are viewed as spam. If you accidentally post such a comment (specifically, one with jumbled text), let an administrator know that it was done in error as soon as possible. If this were to occur, you will be expected not to do it again.
7. Only admins may edit the home page, and polls if necessary.
8. All content here should be in the English language.
9. Directly asking to become an administrator is generally ignored, but if you feel you are truly qualified, don't hesitate to ask and give proper reasoning.

10. Do not bother an admin on another wiki if you were blocked; being rude about it will either be ignored or lead your block to be extended. However, if you respectfully request to be unblocked, or to have your block shortened, it will be considered.

What we want, and what we don't want...

This is a creepypasta wiki, so make your story as creepy and to the point as you can without violating FANDOM's terms of use.

Additionally, don't make stories that completely defeat the purpose of the wiki (such as "Marshall buys ice cream"), or contain excessive shipping. You may not edit other people's stories without their permission, as this is disruptive.

If someone is violating our rules, report it to SmokythePolicePup, or RockyEco-pup, the more active administrators. SirBlaze is not active here, but is available to be contacted in the case of an immediate wiki-related emergency (such as someone going on a blanking spree, or generally going crazy across the wiki).

Waring Blood And Swearing Presnt

When the show Paw Patrol came out for the first time I thought it wasn't going to be good. Turns out I was wrong okay so it wasn't the best show but I still enjoyed it but when the first episode of season 2 came out titled Pups And The Deamon it wasn't at all what I would expect to see on a Nick Jr show or any childrens show for that matter but it happend and I will tell you about it. The first thing I noticed was that when the title screen came up it was blood red and so was Marshall. Okay I said to myself this is going to be weird So the episode started off with the pups doing what they normal do than Ryder got a call from the Mayor she told him That people were dissapering in a cave so Ryder called the pups and I was shocked when it cut to said cave and showed a bunch of dead bodies yeah Well anyway When the show came back Ryder told The Pups that people were dissapering in a cave and that the whole Paw Patrol needed to split up and search the cave then the screen went black and this text appered Skye I relized that this was going to show all The Pups ponit of views through this misson and Skye's was the first as she went through the cave I felt very unevened about the soundings the music didnt help at all it was the sound of a something from a horror movie and than when Skye got to the final part of the cave we saw it This Thing I looked up the new chracters for season 2 of Paw Patrol and I'm pretty damn sure this wasn't any of them it had to be something the creators decided to throw in but what kind of sick Fuck would put this in a chlidrens show than Skye started running as fast as she could the chase was intenste the creture ran very fast so fast that it nearaly caught the terrified pup luckliy Skye escaped and she was visbly shaking so bad she couldn't stand up all too well but she manged to get far away from the cave the screen than faded black agian than it went to a commericl and I passed out I woke up when the show came back from the commerical now the show showed Zuma's ponit of view Zuma's section of the cave had a bunch of eyes it made me feel like I was being watch there were also enimes that Zuma had to fight he mangend to kill them but than he got to a boss battle and the bosses were Kayako

Sakei from the grudge series and Not Gezora a monster that my friend Zach fought when he played the Godzilla Nes Game

I was confuesed Zuma fought Kayako first she looked the same as she always did but this time she could talk when she did she said that Zuma would never win but Zuma was able to beat her by strangling her with his buoy he did the same thing to

Not Gezora than he got to the final part of the cave I new the creture was going to return and Zuma must have felt something wasn't right cause right when he got to the final section of the cave he didn't waste a milosecond before he started hauling ass

the chase was the same only the creature didn't show up right away and there were obstacles most Zuma could jump over or crouch under others he had to go around than the monster appeared stacks of obstacles barely slowed it down it just charged its way through them but thanks to Zuma's speed he was able to escape its grasp I was happy that Zuma escaped and so I laughed and said Not This Time Asshole I decided to take a screenshot to celebrate but after I said that insult the monster did something I didn't see coming it looked at me that wave of mortal terror overtook me again when the show went to its second commercial I immediately rushed into the bathroom to splash some water on my face and to take a shit that I almost didn't manage to contain when that fucking thing looked at me

After that I was freaked out I didn't expect that Fuck face Son Of A Bitch to look at me and why why did that Bastard look at me when I said that insult It was scary but I knew what I needed to do I needed to see this through to the end Well Anyway Before We Get On To This Part I Should Tell You That I Called Zach At First He Thought I Was Crazy But When I Told Him That Zuma Fought Not Gezora He Was All Ears. After I was done talking to Zach the show came back

PAW Patrol Lost Episode

(https://paw-patrol-creepypasta.fandom.com/wiki/PAW_Patrol_Lost_Episode)

FlamingPup here! Don't be too harsh, as this is my first attempt at ACTUALLY writing a creepypasta, ok? Good. Now, without further ado...

The Pasta (Warning: contains a few curse words)

My name is Jordan, and i'm not your average 23 year-old. I enjoy watching Nick Jr. Why? I just get some good laughs out of characters messing up and whatnot. So when I heard there was a new show called "PAW Patrol" coming to Nick Jr, I was ecstatic. I couldn't wait to see another clumsy character like Gil from Bubble Guppies! I watched the pilot episode, Pups And The Kitty-tastrophe, and I was instantly hooked. I mean, sure, talking dogs have been done before by shows like Pound Puppies and 101 Dalmations, but THIS was different! This show was focused around teaching young children how to work together and help the community, which, in my opinion, is much more valuable than teaching them another language (I'm looking at YOU, Dora The Explorer!).

However, my absolute favorite character HAD to be Marshall. He was a dalmation, which already give him points in my mind. But he was also clumsy. Not like really clumsy, just in a comical sense. Plus, he was so brave, just like me!

But, enough about that. The reason I am here today is to tell you of a lost episode of PAW Patrol, supposedly set to air after Pups Make A Splash/Pups Fall Festival. However, it wasn't aired, and there was no explanation given as to why. Spinmaster simply stated, "It didn't really fit the atmosphere of the show". I thought that was bullshit. They were all set to air a new episode, and then they cancel it at the last second!? Who does that!?

I decided to ask around and see if anyone had any knowlage of this lost episode. Unsurprisingly, I got nowhere. I either got a no, a "What are you talking about? There's no lost episodes of PAW Patrol!", or a look like I just killed somebody, which made no sense whatsoever. But, there was one man, I'm assuming in his mid-30's, who knew what I was talking about. He told me he used to work for Nickelodeon Studios back in the "Good Ol' Days", when cartoons like Spongebob were just starting. He said he had worked there as recently as a month ago, but then quit. When I asked him why he quit, he said the following,

"We were brainstorming new ideas for the show, PAW Patrol, when someone asked if we should have one of the pups die during a rescue attempt. I got up and shouted "Are you INSANE!? This is a KIDS show, we can't depict death! Do you KNOW how many viewers we would lose for that!? It's not fucking happening!", and slammed the door. That was the last day I clocked in."

I then decided to jump straight to the point. I asked him if he had a copy of the "Lost Episode". To my utmost surprise, he said, "I think I do, actually. It's the last copy in existence. At least the last one I know of. You can have it, no charge." I was dumbfounded by those words; he was giving me what was possibly the last copy of the lost PAW Patrol episode for free! He even told me it's never been watched before! I couldn't help but smile and say, "Thanks, man!". I received a "You're welcome. Anytime," in response. If only I knew then what I know; the horror that was in that disk...

I got home at around 4:00 PM, played a few minutes of Halo (One of my favourite games), then decided to watch the lost episode of PAW Patrol. I popped it in, and to my surprise, a DVD-like menu screen came up. The options were "Play," "Scene Select," "Extras," "Options," and the last one, which I found kinda funny, "Wuss Out". Maybe it was just a joke for more "Hardcore" fans of PAW Patrol. I decided to play it safe, and pick the Options menu. In it, there were settings for Subtitles, Voice Volume, Music Volume, and Language. Nothing out of the ordinary there. I then went to check Extras. A big red "No" popped up on the screen when I selected it. "No?" I said to myself, but I figured I just had to watch the episode first. I wish I had Wussed out...

The normal PAW Patrol opening played as it should: No distorted music, no jumpscare, none of that crap. It wasn't until the end that it was strange. And by strange, I mean it was missing the bark at the end when the logo shines over. But, I figured that was to be expected, since this WAS an "Unfinished" episode and braced myself for the titlecard. There barely was one. I mean, it was just a plain white background with 4 words etched into it in black. The title of the Lost Episode: "Pups Yelp For Help". I immediately thought, "I hope this isn't a fucking rickroll* or something like that." I mean, don't get me wrong; I have NOTHING against Rick Ashley! I had just heard his most famous song, "Never Gonna Give You Up," about a million times.

Thankfully, it was an actual episode. It started out JUST like Pups Make a Splash; Rubble riding on his skateboard on the way to Katie's Vet clinic. He looked perfectly normal, too. I started thinking this was a just a big practical joke the guy played on me, but kept watching. However, instead of the Vet, Rubble skated up to the Lookout. I mean, it was edited so well that it looked like an actual episode, where he really WAS skating to the Lookout. That, however, is when things began to get weird.

Zuma was waiting outside with Rocky, and Ryder was nowhere in sight! When Rubble skated up to the entrance, Zuma said, "Wubble! Thank goodness you're back! Wyder was worwied about you!". Rubble replied with "Ryder was worried about me? Why?". Then Rocky chimed in, and what he said sent up red flags in my head; "Something's happened inside! I think it's another mission, but I don't feel good about this one.". Don't ask why, but after he said that, I began sweating profusely. Did something happen to Ryder or one of the other pups?

My fears were put to rest when the normal elevator sequence began. However, it was just those three. I was confused, until it reached the top, where Chase, Marshall, and Skye were already in position. However, Chase did not say his usual "Ready for action, Ryder sir!" line. Instead, it went something like "PAW Patrol is ready for.....action.....". This unnerved me, as I really liked Ryder, and he was nowhere to be seen! Marshall said what I was thinking a short time later, "Where's Ryder?". He got replies from the other pups in this order:

Chase: "I don't know, but this isn't normal..."

Skye: "You're telling me..."

Rocky: "This is kinda creepy, isn't it?"

Zuma: "You said it, dude..."

Then, without warning, Ryder appeared on the giant screen, all of the pups to let out a small scream of surprise. I couldn't tell where he was, but it looked too well animated to be CGI. He then said, "Sorry about that pups, I didn't mean to scare you." He was met with, "Ryder! Where are you, and why aren't you here?" from Rocky. What he said next made my blood turn to ice...It was so unexpected.....I will never, EVER, forget the next words Ryder said:

"Well, I was on my way back to the Lookout, but my ATV broke down. I tried calling for help, but nobody could hear me. And then, I sorta fell through a portal, and now i'm in the.....real world....."

All six pups' jaw dropped, as I yelled out the immortal words, "WHAT THE FUCK!?".

WILL YOU STOP WITH THE HARASSMENT AL-FUCKING-READY!?

A FANDOM user

Guys, guys, guys, the war is out there, not in here!

Can't we unite in the fact that we all love Paw Patrol? The outside world is already hostile enough to we brave few without fighting amongst ourselves.

By the way, FlaminPup, you appear to be in contravention of the PAWikia rules with your saucy language. My 15 year old sons live for this site and I would be heartbroken if one of them were to see the word "AL-FUCKING-READY" without my having the chance to put it into context for them.

Please apologise or else I will have to lobby SirBlaze and other eminent Pawpers to ban you Pup-petually from this site.

A concerned citizen of Adventure Bay.

FlamingPup

HE started it by saying I sucked, and harassing me in other ways! I'll apologise to you, but not to that piece of moldy bread!

A FANDOM user

I think you have blown this argument out of all Pup-portion.

If you would just Paws for thought for one minute, you would realise that the 'harrassment' which 'dogs' you throughout this site is really just playful teasing.

It's a 'dog-eat-dog' world out there, and if you can't keep your cool in the heat of the Paw Patrol Wikia message boards, your prospects are 'paw' in the wider world.

Summary

As the years have rolled by, disasters have struck, Digger and Kelsey broke up, But 3 years ago, Kelsey's life changed,

She lost her brother...

This is a song she sings. It is more depressing than gory, but I thought I'd add it.

It's my first creepypasta story, so, don't expect much

Song; story

Kelsey sat down. She sighed. Silver was gone, Digger had left her. But Digger didn't matter... She only wanted silver... She looked at her big brother's grave. It had a picture engraved of him giving her a noogie.

Kelsey: whispers sadly just one more time... Please.

There were tears in her eyes... He was gone
She remembered that fateful day...

Kelsey: I remember it like it was just yesterday

Flashback:

Silver: race ya to the lookout Kelsey!

Kelsey: your on! Can't wait to see our friends again!

Silver: me neither!

Kelsey: what's that sound?

They stopped running, silver heard it to...

Silver: quietly probably just the wind... I hope...

That's when he saw it... An AVALANCHE!!!!!!

Silver: run!!!!

They ran. Silver pushed Kelsey into the sea, she swam up to the shore and ran along the shore, she could see silver, running for his life, she was safe. But then, he was swallowed... Under all that snow.... He was gone...

Kelsey: silver!!

End of flashback.

Kelsey: Goodbye...

*i say good bye
and i remember,
all the sings you loved....
goodbye..
i say goodbye,
wish that day was nothing but a distant dream
goodbye,
i say goodbye...
goodbye my brother...*

Kelsey began to cry. he was gone, digger was gone, she had nothing left...
Goodbye...

CHAPTER 1: the murder of 1999

A high school graduation party was taking place in adventure bay near were is now farmer yumis farm. It was the middle of the night when the party was still going on. All of the teens were watchig a horror movie about a mythological being called THE SLENDER MAN.

"This movie is so over rated", said one of the teens.

"you can say that again Todd", said another teen with a beer

(please note that this was from 1999, teens were allowed yo have beer at there age, right?)

Then out of no were the tv screen turned off with static. Then a few seconds later the power went off with everyone terrified on whats going on.

"Wh-What just happened" said a girl with a scared voice.

"ill go see if somthingg got caught on the powerlines. Be back in a few," said Todd.

As he went to cheak the power lines he saw nothing caught on it. He then turned around and saw something in front of him. He then turned on his flash light and saw somthing he wishes to never see agian.

"oh shit, SLENDERMAN," screamed Todd

Todd fell on his knees and said," what do you want from me Slenderman"

He then saw Slender mam's head coming and looking at him. Then he disappeared out of sight. He then walked into the house even though the power was out. and when he shut the door the power turned on. Todd was shocked on what he saw. His friends dead, stabbed, and torn apart and saw a note on the tv. Todd pick up the note and it read "SEE YOU IN 2015".

Woman: You can't kill us we didn't do anything.

Chase: Being sorry is not going to stop me.

Chase: Freeze!

(She turned around and putted her hands up)

Old Lady: What are you doing her?

Chase: You were killing that tree.

Old Lady: I wasn't killing it. I was just...

Chase: Don't lie to me.

(Chase shooted her in the arm)

Old Lady: AAHHHH!!!

(Chase puts the gun back in his pup-pack and walks off)

(At a party, Chase was looking for someone else to kill until he saw a girl)

Chase: ~Thought to himself~ That girl will be the perfect victim.

(A man walked up to Chase)

Man: Hey, you must be Chase.

Chase: Yah and who you might be?

Man: Matt Smith.

Chase: Well Matt can you do me?

Matt: And what that might be?

Chase: Getting that girl in a cage.

Matt: Ok.

(Matt helped the girl into a cage and raised it up)

(Matt walked into a room that Chase is in)

Matt: Chase?

Chase: Yeah?

Matt: Can I ask you something?

Chase: Go ahead.

Matt: Why do you want that girl in a cage?

Chase: Because, she is going to be my next victim.

Matt: Victim?

Chase: I'd killed many people.

Matt: You're the killer pup.

Chase: I am the killer pup and you're helping me to kill that girl.

(Matt watched in horror as Chase sets the cage to fall)

Matt: I don't think this is a good idea.

Chase: To you it's not but to me it is.

(Chase pulled the switch but nothing happens)

Chase: What?

(Chase keeps pulling the switch and suddenly police officers came in)

Officer: Well well well Chase it was you all along.

Matt: Yep it was him officer. Take him out.

(The officers took Chase out of the building)

(At the station, Chase was sitting in a chair)

Chase: Look guys I work here.

Officer: Not anymore.

Chase: What?

Officer: Some old lady told us that you shot her in the arm.

Chase: But I...

Officer: I'm sorry Chase but we found someone to replace you.

Chase: Who?

Officer: A man named David Tennent.

(The door opened and David came in)

David: Officer, it's time.

Officer: Ok.

(Chase followed them to the room with the shock chair)

Chase: You wouldn't.

David: We are.

(Two officers dragged Chase and strapped him in)

Chase: Please don't do this. I promise I'll never kill anyone again. I PROMISE!!!

(David pulled the switch)

Chase: AAHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!

(David pulled the switch back which means Chase is dead)

Officer: Well that's the last of him.

David: Tomorrow we will bury him in the graveyard.

~Too bad about Chase. If he had killed that girl Chase wouldn't have learned that killing is against the law. Until next time, creep out of trouble because, the cryptkeeper will be watching.~

Life in Time of Infection

(https://paw-patrol-creepypasta.fandom.com/wiki/Life_in_Time_of_Infection)

Haven't been on here in a while, but this is going to be a double crossover with Jurassic World and Lilo and Stitch. POS is a very dangerous disease found in dogs, cats and wolves that results in them attacking their masters, close friends and family. There will be a whole lotta deaths, including all of the PAW Patrol members and a few others, so BEWARE!

Summary

Elsa is the only surviving dog in Adventure Bay. Well, she isn't the only dog that's been infected. Along with her raptor sister, Blue, and her little alien brother, Stitch, the trio of unlikely friends must fight the World War....and succeed. But will that be likely with one dog, a destructive alien and a lone raptor

Episode One: In the Beginning

Elsa flicked her ear. She lifted her head and looked over at Blue. The last surviving raptor of Jurassic World. Her other sisters were killed, Charlie by a missile, Echo by fire and Delta by the Indominus Rex, except one blood sister. Elsa was part Velciraaptor, which gave her raptor attributes. Her dew claws on her front legs had a small raptor sickle claw on them, she had the golden yellow iris, only when it was necessary, and she could imitate their sounds. She looked over at her Wall of Pictures she created along with Blue and the raptor's little alien brother, Stitch. Stitch crash-landed on Earth about a year after Blue was brought to Adventure Bay's Jurassic Park. Elsa inhaled deeply. She loved living in Adventure Bay. But that's when it all went wrong.

Her tag beeped suddenly. "Hello? Elsa speaking."

"E-Elsa? Something happened to Anna," it was Ryder, "I won't go into description but...come down to Farmer Yumi's. Apple orchards."

Stitch opened a large, beady, black eye and looked over at Elsa.

"If Blue wakes up..tell her I'll be at...Anna's funeral....." Elsa sobbed, tears streaking down her face.

Stitch nodded, ears pinned back. "Stitch....sorry....."

Elsa smiled sadly and ran off, smile disappearing.

xxx

Elsa didn't expect the sight she saw when she reached Farmer Yumi's. Anna was dead, but she looked like she was hit by a car or something. Her fur was dull, mangled and her eyes showed no activity but it seemed like she was some sort of zombie. Chase was crying hysterically, saying he was sorry over and over. But that's when Anna's head jerked up, no life activity in her eyes, and clamped her teeth on the nearest object she saw. Farmer Yumi's ankle. Stunned for a few moments, Farmer Yumi screamed in pain, then purple vines snaked up her leg and covered her face, until she dropped down. Dead.

Anna's head flopped back down, lifeless. Elsa stared at her deceased sister's act. "What...was that..?"

Chase backed up, gulping in large breaths. As well did Elsa.

"She was fine yesterday, but then she came home with a bite on her leg. Ruby treated it, but," Chase gulped before continuing, "she limped out to Farmer Yumi's. And killed Bettina...before someone shot her."

Elsa snarled, eyes turning golden-yellow, and looked at Farmer Yumi's body, disapprovingly.

"I'll leave you two alone for now. I said my goodbyes to her...." Chase said, awkwardly stepping out of the way, seeing his sister's violent side. He knew Elsa had a short fuse, so it was best not to interact with her.

Elsa peered at Farmer Yumi's body. Blood trickled from her ankle. Elsa grabbed her neck and, with one powerful force, snapped it. "That's what you get for killing my sister!" she snarled in her raptor language.

She dug up Farmer Yumi's flower bed and placed all of the flowers onto Anna's lifeless corpse.

"I love you...." Elsa whined, before walking off.

xxx

Anna's funeral was eventless, or so they thought. Elsa couldn't grasp the fact that her sister, her baby sister, would die in such a brutal way. She knocked her head against the grave until she heard a yell.

"Get away from me! Get away! AAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHH!!!!!!!" That's when the scream came.

The PAW Patrol darted out of the cemetery to see Mayor Humdinger being mauled to death by the Kitty Catastrophe Crew. Looking a little menacing and quite surly.

One of them turned around and hissed, revealing sharp needle-like fangs. One of them jumped on Emma and landed on her back, digging her razor-sharp teeth into the Sheltie. Emma yelped in pain and yanked her off. The cat landed underneath the tire of a semi truck and was soon killed.

Ryder scooped Emma up in his arms and returned her to the Lookout. Rocky, Chase and Hiro put out the remaining cats by bullets and a knife.

"That's my revenge for you Anna...." Hiro said, turning around to leave a broken microbot at her grave.

Elsa knew Hiro loved her sister. Seeing him like that was too painful. Hiro looked over at the Kitty Catastrophe Crew and Mayor Humdinger. One of the cat's eyes fluttered open, no life in them whatsoever. Hiro grabbed her by the tail and she sunk her teeth into his chest. The exact spot where his heart was.

Hiro slammed her to the ground, ignoring the pain. He looked towards Jurassic Park and began running. Elsa decided to follow him. Unaware of what he was planning to do.

Dropping Like Flies

(https://paw-patrol-creepypasta.fandom.com/wiki/Dropping_Like_Flies)

Rocky: Shell

Skye/Zuma/Ryder: Ironicus

Marshall/Rubble: Beelz

Narrator: Sangy

Ryder/Chase: Malt

Warning: Contains excessive violence, gore, and is very depressing (also contains a few swears so be ready for that)

It was a bright, sunny, day in the city of Adventure Bay. A crystal clear sky like no other, it truly was the perfect day. The pups were in the lower floor of the lookout, watching Apollo the Super-Pup on their TV. Though, despite it being his favorite series, Rubble was nowhere to be seen. To add on to the eeriness, Zuma was also missing. None of the pups thought a thing of it. That is until...

"Has anyone seen Zuma?" inquired Rocky.

"No, I haven't seen him since earlier today." answered Chase. "Come to think of it....I haven't seen Rubble either."

"I hope they're okay." added Skye.

"We had better tell Ryder, I'm starting to get worried about them, guys." stated Marshall.

"You're right, we'd better tell Ryder before it's too late." Chase said anxiously.

Chase activated his pup tag.

Ryder was on the top of the lookout leaning on the rail, when his pup pad rang.

"Ryder!" Chase exclaimed.

"Yes, Chase?" questioned Ryder.

"Rubble and Zuma are missing and neither of us have seen them since earlier." said Chase worriedly.

"Don't worry, Chase, we'll find our friends!" declared Ryder.

Unbeknownst to them, their dear friends were plotting their demise in the nearby forest. Zuma was preparing the weapons that would be needed to carry out the attack. Meanwhile Rubble was selecting the attire they would wear to commit such a heinous act.

Then Rubble walked up to Zuma.

"I'm so sick and tired of Ryder never letting me go on calls, I just can't take it anymore!" Rubble blurted out "But, we'll show them, they'll all be sorry soon enough." He said with an evil grin on his face.

"Trust me dude, they'll never mess with us again.....that is after we're through with them." Zuma laughed.

"I still can't believe that backstabber Rocky would do that to me. He could have never wanted my job, but when Ryder offers it, he can't refuse! He'll be sorry....so sorry!"

"I understand that, that's why we're going to do this in the first place. The whole PAW Patrol has infuriated us in some way, that's why we are going to make them see the error of their ways." Rubble asserted as he handed Zuma a paintball face mask. "Here, take this, unless you don't care if anyone sees your face."

"I'd prefer noone knows that we did it, so I'll take that." Zuma said as he takes the mask and puts it on.

"Now, I think we'll need a couple of weapons. Here take this." Zuma said handing Rubble a shotgun and a pistol.

Zuma readied his own two weapons which were a rifle and a revolver.

"Yes....now I think we're ready." Rubble

The pair started to make their way over to the lookout, readying themselves mentally for what they were about to do.

Back at the lookout, the other PAW Patrol members were worrying themselves sick talking about their two friends' whereabouts.

"It sure is lonely around here without Rubble to crack some of his jokes." commented Marshall.

"Yeah, and I sure miss my good buddy Zuma." said Rocky in a distraught tone. "I sure hope nothing I did or said made him want to run away. The last thing I want him to do is isolate or hurt himself because of me."

"I'm sure it's nothing you did, Rocky, after all you and Zuma are really great friends." said Skye trying to ease him.

Rocky Sighs

"I really hope you're right, Skye." he said with his voice still on edge.

"All I know is that I'm really worried about them too, guys." Chase said concernedly. "To think that our two youngest members are out there, on their own, and no one knows where they are, they could be hurt, in trouble, or even worse."

"Let's try not to think about that." said Skye abruptly.

"Yeah....you're right, I'm sure they just got lost or something." said Chase trying to uplift everyone.

Ryder made his way down the elevator to the lower floor, where the pups were. He walks out of the elevator into the pups' view.

"Chase, you say that no one has seen them since earlier today?" asked Ryder.

"Yes, at least I haven't anyway."

"Have any of you pups seen them today?" He asked the remaining 3 pups.

"No, I haven't, Ryder." answered Marshall.

"Yeah, me neither." responded Skye.

"Well, how about you, Rocky?" asked Ryder as he stared at the pup intently.

"Yes...I did see Zuma, Ryder, but he didn't look too happy." said Rocky tensely. "I asked him if he wanted to play, and he gave me a cold dead stare and said 'I don't really feel like playing right now, dude. Please, just leave me alone.' and I backed off and went inside the lookout after that."

"That's not like Zuma at all, something is probably troubling him." said Ryder. "He should have opened up about it, instead of taking it out on his friends."

"Yeah...I would've asked him what was wrong, but I just decided it was best to let him be." Rocky said still distressed.

"We had better find him before he does anything too drastic." stated Chase.

"Yeah, and find Rubble, too." added Marshall.

"I'm sure we'll find out what happened to them soon, pups." said Ryder assuringly.

Just then loud knocks were heard at the lookout doors. Two masked pups stood behind the glass, with weapons drawn. Zuma took the butt of his rifle and slammed it against the lookout doors, cracking them slightly. Then with one final swing he busted the lookout doors open.

My name is Daniel Weeks. I'm a high school junior and i have a brother name Greg Weeks. He's 6 years old and he is a Paw Patrol Fan. Even his most favorite character of Paw Patrol is Chase. I was already up when Greg walks in saying he is acting a bit strange. I don't know what he is talking about but i don't have time to talk to him cause i got to get ready for school.

Hours later I went home when I saw Greg still sitting on his couch. My mom told me he is acting strange and he is sent home from school earlier. I was confused until this night.

11:45pm

I was in bed when I heard the sound of crashing. Then I hear screams. I ran to my brothers room and a shock ran into my face. In Greg's room was a dead body of my parents and Greg. There is blood covering the walls and there is what appears to be a puppy with a police gear on. And I shocked who is he is. It was Chase. He is looking at me. I Watched A Weird Episode of Paw Patrol Last Night and Now I Wish I Hadn't

(https://paw-patrol-creepypasta.fandom.com/wiki/I_Watched_A_Weird_Episode_Of_Paw_Patrol_Last_Night_And_Now_I_Wish_I_Hadn%27t)

I don't know how to start this off as a 20 year old woman who just woke up from a oxycodone high but my name is Yvonne and I am a 20 year old woman who woke up after an oxycodone high. Yesterday after I had surgery my friend Kelly picked me up and drove me back home, She helped me out of the car and into the house since I was still really woozy from the painkillers and could barely stand on my own let alone walk. She took me inside and sat me down on the living room couch.

"You sure you don't want me to hang around till your parent's get back?" she asked looking slightly concerned. "Do do don't worry I'll I'll be fine." I replied slurring my words together as I was only barely able to speak. My parents took my little sister to her friend's birthday party at a chuck e' cheese and they said they will be back an hour or two after I came back from surgery and I thought I would be okay till then. "Okay seeya later then" Kelly replied as she walked out of the living room. I sat there and got my phone out only to discover I forgot to charge it and it was only at 10%. I groaned and reached out for the PS4 controller on the side table and managed to grab it before falling over on my side. Unable to get back up I press the playstation logo button on the controller and logged into my account. I planned on playing some monster hunter but it turned out my little sister left her "Paw Patrol" Blu-ray inside, I mentally said fuck it and just decided to watch some paw patrol since I couldn't get up and I didn't have any games downloaded on the PS4 at the time.

I got to the main menu and pressed "play", I laid there in a stupor with my gaze fixed to the screen. I never watched anything related to Paw Patrol before despite how much my sister loves it. From what I saw the show was kind of like power rangers with puppies that helped people with their transforming vehicle mech thingies and there was some generic kid that followed the puppies around for some reason. Most of the episodes seemed normal like one where the pink puppy ranger(I think her name was skye or skylla) and the green puppy ranger went to camp and help the blue puppy ranger's chicken friend. Then there was also a episode with the blue puppy ranger making friends with a baby owl.

It was pretty fun for a kids cartoon at least but the last episode I watched that night was really weird. Forgive me if I miss some details like I said I was still high from the oxycodone they gave me for my D&C. Anyway after the theme song the episode started out with the human kid who I think is called Rider playing a console that bore an odd resemblance to a sega genesis. The camera pans to the TV and it turns out the game he was playing was Shaq Fu. Rider Sat there playing the game and the camera stayed on the TV screen for a solid 5 minutes as he played a few matches of the story mode. Then the green puppy ranger came in yelling "Rider there is a huge emergency in your mom's room and you have to come quick!". Rider then shot straight up from the crouch. "What is it boy!?" he screamed back worried about his mom. "Follow me!" the green puppy ranger shouted and ran straight towards Rider's mom's room, They ran up the stairs and for some reason they ran up the stairs for 4 minutes straight even though the house wasn't too big. Once the two of them reached rider's mom's room they saw the door was open and Rider hurriedly pushed it open. Rider let out a shrill scream when he saw the carnival of utter depravity scene laid out before him, For four minutes the camera slowly spun around the room once. There was a weird hyper-realistic white goop all over the scene, Some of it in large puddles on the ground and some it sprayed on the wall. Rider's mom was laying down on the bed Wearing a celtics jersey. She was covered in the mysterious white hyper-realistic goop and She had 4 lit cigarettes in each of her hands and she took a agonizingly long puff from all 8 cigs, she puffed the smoke in for a full 3 minutes then blew it out in a large cloud. Normally Paw patrol episodes were split into 2 11 minute stories but this seemed to be a full 22 minute episode since it was 12 minutes in with no end in sight.

Rider let out a harsh scream for exactly 2 minutes and 45 seconds at the sight of his mom smoking while covered in weird white sludge. "This is terrible your mom is smoking!" the green puppy ranger screeched. Doesn't she know that cigarettes are bad for your health and the environment!" he cried as Rider fell to his knees unable to process the horrible sight before him. The episode then cut to the green puppy ranger and Rider driving to the beach for 4 minutes of screentime. When they got to the beach the sun was setting and one lone man was looking out to the ocean with a basketball in his hand.

The green puppy ranger and Rider got out of the car and Rider started walking towards mysterious man while the green puppy ranger stayed behind and watched him. Rider strode towards the mysterious man while crying for 2 minutes. "Is it true?" he yelled out through his tears when he got behind the mysterious man. The mysterious man turned around and it was Shaq. "Yes kid it's true" he said in an ominous booming voice. "I Shaqed your mom" he said before letting out a horrible evil bass boosted laugh with weird audio skips, stops and TV static cut-ins. Rider's knees went weak and his palms were sweaty when he fell crying to his knees. "You horrible free throw missing twerk-slut!" Rider yelled trying to punch shaq. Shaq didn't even feel the punch and he responded by dunking on Rider causing his head to explode while the theme to space jam played.

The credits played as the camera focused on rider's corpse with the waves lapping on the shore. Shaq just stood there the entire time holding the blood soaked basketball in one hand staring at the headless corpse with a smile. After the credits finished rolling I feel asleep.

I have been asleep for 20 whole hours and when I woke up I looked around the house and saw no signs of my mom, dad or sister having come home after the party. I frantically tried to call my mom and dad on their phones and I left them dozens of text and voice messages over the course of an hour but there was no response. Then I called Mrs. Flynn but it took a few tries until I finally reached her. At first I scared her with my shouting and then I asked her where my parents and sister were.

"They never came so I don't know why you're asking me."
