

So you want to stop seeing a game in your Campaign page on the Paizo forums, but the original creator can't mark it as inactive? Here's how to manually hide it from yourself:

1. Navigate to any page of any game, then click the [\[Online Campaigns\]](#) link underlined in the screenshot below.

The screenshot shows the Paizo forums interface. At the top is a dark navigation bar with the Paizo logo, a search bar, and links for 'My Account', 'Cart', and 'Help'. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with links for 'Pathfinder', 'Starfinder', 'Adventure', 'Store', 'Organized', and 'Community'. Under 'Organized', there are sub-links for 'Card' and 'Play', and further down, a 'Game' link. The main content area shows the breadcrumb 'Community / Forums / Online Campaigns'. The title of the page is '[PaizoCon 2022] SFS 4-12 A Festive Operation' by Game Master Northern Dreamer. Below the title, it says 'SFS PbP - SFS 4-12 A Festive Operation'. There is a 'GM Notes: Show' button and a link to 'SFS 4-12 Maps & Handouts'. A tabbed interface shows 'Campaign Info' as the active tab, with other tabs for 'Gameplay', 'Discussion', 'Recruitment', 'Players', and 'Characters'. The text under 'Campaign Info' reads: 'My "Parent" Lodge - The Flaxseed Pathfinder Lodge - where you can find a TON of resources about playing Pathfinder Society games in Play-by-Post format!'. It continues with a paragraph: 'I STRONGLY advise newer players to Play-by-Post gaming to check out the amazing resources that The Flaxseed Lodges have put together. In fact, rather than re-post all of the links that are there, I'll just add a few beyond the ones already referenced above:'. Finally, it says 'GM Hmm's profile page with tons of great links (some of which I also have below)'.

2. Now you're on a page that lists every single thread for every single game ever on the Paizo forums. While you could do the next step here, it will be a lot easier if you don't have all the games you're not participating in listed. To hide them, click the [\[Focus\]](#) link underlined in the screenshot below.

Did you inherit a play-by-post?

If you are the GM for a play-by-post campaign but didn't start the thread, please email customer.service@paizo.com.

We need:

- A link to your profile page (click on your name at the top where it says "Welcome, your name!")
- A link to the gameplay and discussion threads for the campaigns you have inherited.

Just copy and paste these links from the address bar in your browser, please.
