

P4175 Non-Custodial Parent Relations

In accordance with Policy #4170 above, upon request and unless prohibited by the court the school shall provide equal access to student records, notices and program announcements, etc. to both the mother, father and/or guardian of children whose parents are divorced. Copies of any restrictive court orders must be made available to the school before such access will be denied. Non-custodial requests for information shall name the student, the address and telephone number of the parent seeking access, and the specific access desired.

A child will not be released to a non-custodial parent if the custodial parent timely notifies the principal of such restriction. The principal may require legal documentation.
