

An essay

You watched the video Does being rich makes you lazy? Now you are going to write an essay using information from the video. You might want to watch the video again or have a look at the assignments in the Listening section.

Write your contribution using the following prompts:

- Introduce the subject.
- Make a comparison between poor and rich people.
- Do you think money problems of poor people can be solved? Explain your answer.
- What could rich people do to help poor people? Explain your answer.

Ask your teacher how many words you have to use.

Here you can write your essay.
