- They mark their own lunch count on the form. It's on the chromebook cart.
- Coleman and Riley have a phone, they know what to do to sign it in and out from the basket.
- They can go to the library in the morning before school starts.
- For morning work there should be stacks of worksheets on my brown table by the smart board. You can use a spelling worksheet, or one of them that has a mix of spelling or math. If you can't find any of them they can do EPIC.

1ST PERIOD 8:00-8:53	NOTES:
This is reading time. They will need their IReady reading books. This is going to be an independent practice. However, I want them to read the story outloud once, then you read it one time with them before they do the questions in their book. They will	Computer passwords for all students to login to their chromebooks is DB0bcatsP be reading the story The Lost Camel on page 134. They will answer ALL the questions including the learning target. They do not have to turn it in, we can tear it out once I am back. If they finish this they need to do Reading A to Z (Raz Plus).

2ND PERIOD 8:56-9:49	NOTES:
Spelling I put a link on Google Classroom for them to practice their words. They need to complete at least 3 of the practices. There are multiple to choose from. After this, I put an opinion writing activity over a winter character on Google Classroom. They each should have their own document attached to the link. Please have them read the directions before they start. If they finish all of this then they can do NORedInk or MyPath. - If you need anything extra feel free to use any of the worksheets I have printed out on my brown desk.
3RD PERIOD 9:52-10:45	NOTES:
Math - they start off with extra Math! ALWAYS! I will check to see if they got green when I return. They can play awakening when they finish, but they have to do all the rounds first. After this they have a few mastery quizzes on IReady to do. These are considered a quiz grade. They know how to do all of these skills. It should be a review. If they finish them all. They need to pick an addition and a subtraction WS to do out of their fluency book. There should be a couple in the first couple of pages. They can also play a multiplication bubble pop game on Google Classroom IF they have EVERYTHING completed!
