After we harvested our crops, our _____ sent four men hunting for _____, so that we could celebrate together, after we finished harvesting our barley and corn. Those four men killed so many wild birds in one day that, along with other food, the wild bird meat provided food for the colony for almost a week. At that time, along with other _____, we practiced shooting our muskets. Many of the Wampanoag came to the town including _____, with about ninety men, who stayed for _____ of feasting and entertainment. The Wampanoag went out and killed five _____ which they brought to the colony and presented to Governor William Bradford and Captain Myles Standish and others. Although there is not as much food as there was at the harvest feast, thanks to the goodness of God, we have enough to eat and we will not starve. We wish you were here to share with us. We have found the Wampanoag people have kept the treaty we made and we get along well when we visit them.
