What are the Medicaid plans in Utah?

Choice of Health Care Delivery

Choice of Health Care Delivery granted the state the power to mandate managed care enrollment for conventional Medicaid recipients living in four urban counties.

A person may now select one of four managed care plans, which the state identifies as their Accountable Care Organizations, from various managed care entities. Previously, the form used PAHPs and PCCMs.

Non-Emergency Transportation

Until the program's termination and shift to state plan authority, Utah was permitted to contract with a single vendor to provide prepaid non-emergency transportation services.

Healthy Outcomes for Medical Excellence

The state changed the Healthy Outcomes Medical Excellence (HOME) program into a dangerous MCO program, which deals with one plan, to provide behavioral health services and acute, primary, and personal care services to people with developmental disabilities using a patient-centered medical model of care.
