

- 1.) Characterization- The author showed good characterization of the boy with divorced parents.
- 2.) Motivation- After losing the game, Laura was more motivated to work harder.
- 3.) Conflict- Samantha avoided conflict between Bob and Jill.
- 4.) Loyalty- The dog was loyal to its owner.
- 5.) Protagonist- The girl was dangling off the fire escape when a man saved her from falling, making him a protagonist.
- 6.) Antagonist- Carol was nervous for her volleyball game against her biggest antagonist.
- 7.) Flat character- Throughout the school year, Bella stuck with the same friend group making her a flat character.
- 8.) Round character- Jimmy used to be popular in school until he found out that his mother didn't have long to live. Therefore, he dropped out of school and became lonely which makes him a round character.
- 9.) Static character- Taylor played soccer since she was 10 years old and a year later she hasn't developed any new skills making her a static character.
- 10.) Dynamic character- Noah was always the smart and athletic kid, until he got into a fight with his best friend, found out that his dad was a drug addict, and was failing most of his classes. He started to not care about his grades and started stress eating, causing him to gain weight making him a dynamic character.