

Based on the documents you've shared, I'll create a summarized comparison list of the music policies for the different regions.

Key Differences Between 5A Region 6 and Region 5 Music Policies

1. Organization Structure: Region 6 lists specific activity chairs (Adam Larson and Erin Tall) while Region 5's document doesn't specify chairs.
2. Event Schedule: Region 6 provides a detailed schedule for 2024-2025 events with specific dates, times, and locations, while Region 5 focuses on policy guidelines rather than scheduling.
3. Contact Information: Region 6 includes a comprehensive contact directory with names, emails, and phone numbers for music directors at all schools in the region, which is not present in the Region 5 document.
4. Adjudicator Requirements:
 - Region 5 specifies exactly how many adjudicators are required for each festival type
 - Region 5 outlines that Solo & Ensemble uses up to 10 adjudicators for instrumental and 8 for vocal
 - Region 6 doesn't detail adjudicator requirements in the provided pages
5. Sight Reading Policies: Region 5 specifically mandates sight reading for jazz ensembles but makes it optional for concert bands and orchestras, while this policy isn't mentioned in the Region 6 document.
6. Performance Guidelines: Region 5 includes specific performance limitations (e.g., Madrigal Choirs limited to 15 minutes, Concert Choirs allowed 3 selections), which aren't mentioned in the Region 6 document.
7. Audience Participation: Region 5 requires ensemble members to be audience participants for at least two other performances, which isn't mentioned in the Region 6 document.
8. Rating and Certificate System: Region 5 details its rating system and certificates for different performance categories, which isn't covered in the Region 6 document.
9. School Links: Region 5 document has hyperlinks to additional policies, while Region 6 has website links to the UHSAA Music resources.
10. State Event Listings: Region 6 provides a numbered list of all state-level events with dates, which isn't included in the Region 5 document.
