Course Description:

- High beginning speaking and listening focus course.
- Comprehension of important points and details in spoken English.
- Basic conversations on a variety of topics.

Class Goals: Speaking & Listening

- ❖ Speaking/Conversation – You will be able to improve your fluency in conversations in different situations.
- ❖ Listening - You will be able to understand stories and dialogues about common topics in English.

👋 No textbook is required for this course. Multimedia instructional materials are accessible course content created and curated by the instructor. 🙌

Attendance:

This class meets entirely online (asynchronously) and may have some optional synchronous meetings in Zoom. So, all work will be done in Canvas. Expect to do a total of 6+ hours of work per week on Canvas. Most online activities will have Wednesday & Sunday assignment dates.

- New students: Please do at least two activities within the first week you are in the class. For Module 0: Introduction, please make sure you view all the information and do the Discussion. If I see that there is no activity, I will contact you to see if you need any help.
- Continuing students: If for some reason, you cannot continue to do the activities, please contact me so I can help.
- In two weeks, I may drop you if...

- you don't let me know why you stop participating in class activities OR
- you don't complete at least one assignment OR
- you don't participate in at least one discussion.

Class Activities:

Your participation in Canvas assignments are important to help you learn English. You will spend 6+ hours on these activities in Canvas every week.

- Turn on Notifications for Announcements in your Canvas "Account Profile"
- Do the assignments on Canvas:
 - ❖ participate in in Canvas discussions
 - ❖ do exercises and take quizzes on Canvas
- Do homework in your book

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, a student will be able to:

1. Identify main points and key details in a range of simplified spoken texts in English.
2. Communicate orally in English in familiar social and workplace contexts using high-beginning English grammar and vocabulary.
