The Sripatum Law Journal has set the limit for duplicate works using Thaijo's CopyCatch program, where research articles must not exceed 20% and academic articles must not exceed 20%.

Research Article

(Content should not exceed 30-35 pages, as it is formatted in A5 format.) This article should include an abstract in both Thai and English, no more than 300 words long, including an introduction, objectives, literature review, research methodology, research findings, discussion of research findings, new knowledge, conclusion, recommendations, and references.

* If images, graphs, or tables are included, they must be saved as JPEG or GIF files.

In-Context Citations

In-Context citations should be based on the author-date style, indicating the author's full name, year of publication, and the text to be cited. For example, (Chansongpol, 2020). If the author's name is part of the article, include the year of publication in parentheses, such as Chansongpol (2020).
