When: Early Morning

Who(Main): Mitig, Freyja, Toki, Gizmo

Who(Secondary/Background/Cameo): TBA. Keep an eye out for sexy cameos ;3

Freyja- Junior Obedience Trainer. Age 22 (dog years)

She's worked at the school for some time as a tutor and an assistant to the lead trainer.

Currently she's looking to have a litter and wants to make sure her puppies turn out healthy. So far she's not having any luck on getting pregnant from Toki. She wants to spice things up with someone else, but is afraid to take the risk of having bad genes spread to her puppies.

Mitig- Self Defense/Attack/Military Dog. Age 29

He's working up to be shipped out to Syria within the month. He passed his training courses and is using the school as an emergency kennel (his previous facility burnt down) before he is sent out. He has a high sex drive and is looking to have as much sexual fun as possible. Determined to impregnate Freyja before leaving, he visually comes off as purely wanting Freyja to relieve himself, but in actuality he just wants her puppies to carry on his legacy in case he doesn't make it back from Syria.

Toki - Detection/Show Dog. Age 25

Toki holds himself highly for his family bloodline and talks about his father a lot. He's currently competing in the local show dog events in town. His father is a champion show dog and is well known in the area for how many bitches he's fucked. Though his father wishes to have an abundance of offspring from multiple girls, he can't overcome his feelings for Freyja and can only imagine himself with her.

Gizmo- Tracking Dog, Tricolour Border Collie. Age 26

Gizmo is easily outmatched physically by his GSD counterparts, which works for him as he likes to be 'used'. He has a huge attraction to Freyja and Toki and is completely obsessed with watching them interact with each other. He's a bit of an odd, sporadic character with an even odder sense of humour and a long resume. Gizmo knows his stuff and is strikingly good looking. He's known to occasionally hookup with strangers in the backyard.

Plot: Freyja is about to go in heat and the two males Toki and Mitig seek to claim her. Toki and Freyja have a history spanning a few years which causes issues with Mitig's determination to have puppies.

- Passerbys walk past while Mitig thinks to himself about what to expect. He questions why he's supposed to stay at such a dump. He's saddened that this may be the last place he stays in his hometown, and shows some regret of not having a 'normal' life.
- Mitig tries thinks about all the sexual adventures that await him in the new place instead. (shot of lipstick being applied by a woman at the bus stop).
- He points his gaze to an anthro dalmatian lady (wearing skimpy clothes, sitting, panties showing) at the bus stop applying some makeup and winks to her. "Pervert!" she exclaims, sliding the lipstick back.
- Mitig shakes his head and looks up to the house and examines a border collie sniffing vigorously at the door and looking through the window.
- He wonders if he's early?

- "You, collie!! Are we early?" - Mitig asks
- The border collie jumps up in shock and spins around, showing some swelling and pink in between his legs.
- "Yes yes yes! Are you the new one? Ohhh you're a lot better looking than I imagined!" the collie says as Mitig is walking up the steps.
- "I'd stay out here with ME if I were you." the collie suggests as Mitig walks up to the door.
- Mitig looks confused. The collie jumps up to the window again, bringing the collies red prick more on eye level with Mitig.
- jump cut to inside building Toki and Freja are getting down and dirty before the class starts.

- "Goody thing you're early! I never miss out on the morning show..." The collie whispers.
- Mitig does the same to catch a view of the happenings inside. He thinks to himself 'the girls here are fantastic!'
- Mitig peers down to the collies red poker, which makes his heart race slightly when he realized that one of the collies paws are present, pulling back the sheath and squirting himself on the door.
- The collie looks over to the shepherd and smiles 'I'm Gizmo by the way...'
- Mitig smiles back, impressed by Gizmo's overall confidence, especially in public. The shepherd's never played with another male before but the opportunity has never presented itself so easily. Gizmo is quickly making it to Mitig's list of adventures.
